

Saydullo Khayrulloev met with Katherine Muller

In June 1 the Mr Saydullo Khayrulloev head of the Majlisi Namoyandagon of the Majlisi Oli of the Republic of Tajikistan met with Mrs Katherine Muller Chief of Party, IFES Tajikistan at her desire.

During the useful meeting which conducted in the atmosphere of mutual understanding, the head of Majlisi Namoyandagon expressed his view about the activities of the country's professional parliament.

Both sides shared their opinion about the increasing working relations between parliament and this influential international organization.

In her turn Katherine Muller expressed her thanks for the cordial meeting of the head of the professional parliament of Tajikistan added that IFES Tajikistan carries out activities on several projects including Civic Education Project, SLGD, SCC, SPD and others and is aimed to contribute to development of democratization of society, increasing the level of knowledge of pupils and students, active participation of citizens in the community life through them.

At the end of meeting Katherine Muller gave as a present 500 copies of the Human rights handbook for parliamentarians which was published with financial support of IFES and the Embassy of Great Britain in Tajikistan.