4. Scope of Work

The “Youth Advocacy, Linkages and Leadership in Elections and Society” (Youth ALLIES) program, implemented by the International Foundation for Electoral Systems (IFES) with support from the United States Agency for International Development seeks to increase inclusive participation and engagement of young Indigenous peoples in community and civic life. IFES Guyana is proposing a collaboration with a Guyana-based Indigenous Peoples organization that will design, lead and implement locally driven solutions to address key challenges hindering youth civic and political participation within Indigenous communities, in particular.

The program should be grounded in public opinion data and any materials designed will reflect the voices of Indigenous youth. A specialized training curriculum for civic education will be provided by IFES to increase youth knowledge and understanding of civic and community processes, and focused on improving the leadership, teamwork, public speaking, advocacy and project management skills of Indigenous youth. These trainings will be designed to be youth-led for youth participation and engagement, leveraging entertaining education - ‘edutainment’. The program will also promote opportunities for increased trust and improved relationships between community members. To achieve this, Indigenous youth trained in this program will be given the opportunity to apply for small community action grants which they can use to tackle issues that they identify within their respective villages.

IFES is committed to a youth-led, partner-designed and flexible management approach throughout the Youth ALLIES program. Collaboration with and between the Youth ALLIES and additional partners will be central to the program. IFES will include the selected partner in all stages of the program, from initial concept design and cocreation to full proposal development, and throughout implementation and monitoring and evaluation processes.

Specifically, IFES will work with this organization on activities to include the following:

- Interactive Focus Group Discussions on Indigenous communities’ access to information
- Civic and voter education for Indigenous Youth
- Community action initiatives for Indigenous Youth
- Activities to increase access to information for Indigenous communities

Deliverables may include:

- Workplans and accompanying timelines
- Monthly activity reports
- Developed civic and voter education materials
- Key workshop and training materials
- M&E data on activity dissemination, participation, results, and outcomes
- Final project report

Applicants must submit a detailed timeline in their application showing the time required to implement the services requested. IFES requires all deliverables to be completed not later than May 2, 2024.

In addition, applicants expected to expend $750,000 or more in U.S. funded awards during their fiscal year must have an audit conducted in accordance with 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart F—Audit Requirements. If Applicable, applicants must ensure that funds are included in the grant budget for an audit.
- IFES will issue the appropriate grant mechanism depending on the nature of the work, the capacity of the grantee, the duration of the grant, and the overall value of the grant.
- IFES will provide continuous mentorship, training and oversight to ensure grant management practices are in line with anti-corruption principles as well as to build capacity of local grantees to fully manage and implement their programs in adherence to donor regulations and with a view towards sustainability.
