- Demonstrated capacity to organize, manage and implement full range of activities required to achieve program goals and objectives
- Demonstrated flexibility to adjust implementation in response to changing environments
- Demonstrated strong past performance in implementing programs of similar size, scope and complexity
- Demonstrated presence and/or networks in the proposed target districts. Proof of applicant's institutional and administrative anchoring with grassroots state structures while maintaining its autonomy as civil society organization.

3.8. Selection and Notification

Applicants determined by IFES that possess the capacity to compete for this project will be selected to move into the negotiation phase of this process. Written notification will be sent to these applicants via e-mail. Those applicants not selected for the negotiation phase will also be notified.

4. Scope of Work

Applicants should clearly, logically and specifically articulate their strategy for implementing a program “supporting the synergy of civil society organizations for the prevention and resolution of electoral conflicts and the advocacy efforts”.

All applicants must make a convincing case for how the applicant organization can realistically and effectively implement the project in the anticipated timeline of October 2023 to June 2026.

The winning application will work specifically on two objectives including 1) to contribute to building the institutional capacities of networked civil society organizations. Examples of activities related to this objective are two-folds and could involve: first, streamlining the administration and animation of the existing secretariat/technical coordination of CSOs' synergy. Applicant will propose sub-activities aimed at boosting communication or visibility of the Synergy of CSOs and its partners. IFES expects the applicant to describe how his concept will help updating synergy's existing website, and the strategic plan drafted on the eve of the coup d'état (overturn) of September 05, 2021, and setting up the synergy's training program for its members on dialogue and electoral disputes.

The second line of activities will aim at strengthening the capacities of Guinean civil society on alternative mechanisms for the prevention and resolution of conflicts in electoral processes. Under this aim, the winning application will propose a range of knowledge transfer activities on different topics relevant to the award (dialogue and electoral dispute resolution) and lead partner-CSOs to conduct grassroots' advocacy for good electoral management, community awareness on conflict prevention, disinformation, hate speech.

Overall, the application should detail how it will contribute to the following outcomes:

- Guinean CSOs' synergy ability to deliver on its mission is improved.
- Guinean CSOs' work and contribution to the Guinean national dialogue is visible to the community and national leaders.
- Guinean CSOs' improved management skills contributes to their sustainability.

5. Functional Requirements

5.1. Timeline:

Applicants must submit a detailed timeline in their Application showing the time required to implement the services requested. IFES requires all deliverables to be completed not later than June 30, 2026.

5.2. Monitoring & Evaluation

- As part of its due diligence, IFES conducts pre-award surveys on all potential grantees to assess capacity and inform the appropriate grant mechanism. In addition, applicants expected to expend $750,000 or more in U.S. funded awards during their fiscal year must have an audit conducted in accordance with 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart F—Audit Requirements. If Applicable, applicants must ensure that funds are included in the grant budget for an audit.
- IFES will issue the appropriate grant mechanism depending on the nature of the work, the capacity of the grantee, the duration of the grant, and the overall value of the grant.
- IFES will provide continuous mentorship, training and oversight to ensure grant management practices are in line with anti-corruption principles as well as to build capacity of local grantees to fully manage and implement their programs in adherence to donor regulations and with a view towards sustainability.

5.3. Deliverables:

Specific deliverables and reporting will be determined based on the grant activities proposed and negotiated during the negotiation phase.

6. Additional Terms & Conditions*6.1. Non-Disclosure Agreement

IFES reserves the right to require any applicant to enter into a non-disclosure agreement.

6.2. Zero Tolerance for Fraud

IFES has zero tolerance for fraud. Fraud is any act or omission that intentionally misleads, or attempts to mislead, to obtain a benefit or to avoid an obligation. If you have concerns about potential fraud in any way related to IFES projects, contracts, or activities, please contact IFES' Compliance Hotline at compliance@ifes.org or at +1 202-350-6791.

6.3. Intellectual Property

Applicants should not use any intellectual property of IFES including, but not limited to, all logos, registered trademarks, or trade names of IFES, at any time, without the prior written approval of IFES, as appropriate.

6.4. Applications

All accepted applications shall become the property of IFES and will not be returned.

6.5. Governing Law

This RFA and the applicants' applications shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, USA.

6.6. Partial Awarding

IFES reserves the right to accept all or part of the application when awarding the grant. IFES also reserves the right to issue multiple awards and procure only items or services from selected applicants.

6.7. No Liability

Issuance of this RFA does not constitute a commitment on the part of IFES to make an award nor does it commit IFES to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of any application in response to this RFA. Further, IFES reserves the right to reject any or all applications received or stop solicitation process at any time, without assigning any reason or liability.

IFES shall not be liable to any applicant, person, or entity for any losses, expenses, costs, claims, or damages of any kind:

- Arising out of, by reason of, or attributable to, the applicant responding to this RFA; or
- As a result of the use of any information, error, or omission contained in this RFA document or provided during the RFA process.

6.8. Entire RFA

This RFA, any addenda to it, and any attached schedules, constitute the entire RFA.
