Souvenir Cards

Two souvenir cards have been produced by the Electoral Affairs Commission to commemorate the first Legislative Council Election of the HKSAR.

The first souvenir card, along with a poll card, will be sent to registered voters about 10 days before election day – May 24, 1998.

The second card, and a card holder for both cards, will be issued to voters after they have voted on May 24.

On May 24, 1998, the first Legislative Council (LegCo) election of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (HKSAR) will be held.

The objective of the Government for this historic election is to produce a legislature which is credible and representative. The Government is committed to ensuring that the electoral arrangements are fair, open and honest and acceptable to the people of Hong Kong.

The first LegCo election of the HKSAR will be conducted in accordance with the provisions in the Basic Law and the Legislative Council Ordinance. The entire electoral process will be supervised by an independent statutory body, the Electoral Affairs Commission. The Independent Commission Against Corruption will also help to ensure a clean election.

The '1998 Election Special' is intended as a general reference and a commemorative publication on this important election. It is also intended to promote participation by all sectors of the community in an election which will have a significant bearing on the future of the HKSAR - our home.

Please take the time to familiarise yourself with Hong Kong's electoral system and the candidates for whom you will be voting to be your representatives in the LegCo.
"Democracy is the hallmark of a new era for Hong Kong. The Special Administrative Region Government will resolutely move forward to a more democratic form of government in accordance with the provisions in the Basic Law. We will provide opportunities for every stratum of society and legitimate political organisations, and people with different shades of opinion, to participate in the political process. The Special Administrative Region Government will adopt an open attitude and be accountable to the public."

The Chief Executive, Mr Tung Chee Hwa, speaking at the ceremony to mark the establishment of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region on July 1, 1997.

"The coming election is particularly meaningful as it is the first Legislative Council election after the establishment of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region. You can vote to elect your Legislative Council representatives. The active participation of the public and the candidates in the election will mark an important step towards the realisation of 'Hong Kong people running Hong Kong'."

The Chief Secretary for Administration, Mrs Anson Chan, speaking at the opening ceremony of the 'Election Carnival' held on April 4, 1998.

"The work of the Legislative Council is closely related to the life of Hong Kong people. As a voter, you can vote in the coming election and elect your representatives to the Legislative Council. Don't give up your chance to vote. In fact, the voting procedures are very simple and easy. It will only take you a few minutes to cast your vote. Why not go ahead with it?"

The Secretary for Constitutional Affairs, Mr Michael Suen, speaking at the opening ceremony of the 'Roving Exhibition for the 1998 Legislative Council Election' on March 12, 1998.
Hong Kong's Legislative Council has had direct elections by universal suffrage in geographical constituencies since 1991.

The Basic Law sets out the blueprint for Hong Kong's democratic development. It provides for a steady increase in the number of geographical seats in the immediate future: 20 for the first term of LegCo in 1998; 24 for the second term in 2000; and 30 for the third term in 2004.

According to the Basic Law (Article 68), the method for forming the Legislative Council shall be specified in the light of the actual situation in the HKSAR and in accordance with the principle of gradual and orderly progress. The ultimate aim is to elect all 60 LegCo members by universal suffrage. The Basic Law provides a mechanism for Hong Kong people to decide how best to achieve that aim after 2007.

LegCo seats from Geographical Constituencies
LegCo’s powers and functions include the following:

- To enact laws
- To examine and approve budgets, taxation and public expenditure
- To raise questions on the work of the Government
- To debate issues concerning public interests
- To receive and handle complaints from Hong Kong residents
The first LegCo election of the HKSAR will be held on May 24, 1998.

All 60 LegCo members will be returned by elections as follows:

- 20 from geographical constituencies
- 30 from functional constituencies
- 10 from an Election Committee

How much do you know about the election?

(1) How many seats will be returned through the Geographical Constituency, Functional Constituency and Election Committee elections respectively?
   A. 30,20,10
   B. 10,20,30
   C. 20,30,10

(2) Which voting system will be adopted in the Geographical Constituency elections?
   A. List Voting System
   B. Preferential Elimination Voting System
   C. 'First-past-the post' System

(3) How do you cast your vote in the Geographical Constituency elections?
   A. Mark a '√' next to the name of one candidate.
   B. Mark a '√' next to the names of more than one candidates.
   C. Mark a '√' inside the circle opposite the list of your choice.

(4) The Election Hotline number is:
   A. 2588 1212
   B. 1234 5678
   C. 8765 4321
20 LegCo members will be returned from five geographical constituencies (GCs):

- Hong Kong Island: 4 seats
- Kowloon East: 3 seats
- Kowloon West: 3 seats
- New Territories East: 5 seats
- New Territories West: 5 seats

Total: 20 seats

Geographical Constituency elections will be by universal suffrage. All the 2.8 million registered voters have the right to vote.

The List Voting System operating under the Largest Remainder Formula - a form of proportional representation voting system - will be used.

Each voter can cast one vote in his or her constituency.

Voting is simple and easy. All a voter has to do is to choose one of the lists printed on the ballot paper and mark a tick '✓' in the circle next to it.

The five Geographical Constituencies

- 5 Seats
  - The constituency consists of 5 districts:
    - Tsuen Wan
    - Tuen Mun
    - Yuen Long
    - Kwai Tsing
    - Islands

- 5 Seats
  - The constituency consists of 4 districts:
    - North
    - Tai Po
    - Sha Tin
    - Sai Kung

- 3 Seats
  - The constituency consists of 3 districts:
    - Yau Tsing Mong
    - Sham Shui Po
    - Kowloon City

    - Kwun Tong

- 4 Seats
  - The constituency consists of 4 districts:
    - Central & Western
    - Wan Chai
    - Eastern
    - Southern
The List Voting System

- Is open and fair and is commonly used in many countries
- Can produce a result which more accurately reflects voter preference
- Can accommodate future increases in geographical seats as envisaged in the Basic Law
Electors

1. Choose only one of the lists of candidates as printed on the ballot paper.
2. Mark a ‘✓’ inside the circle opposite the list of your choice.
3. Do not mark more than one ‘✓’.

Distribution of seats under the List Voting System

Largest Remainder Formula

If:

- 5-seat constituency
- A total of 300,000 valid votes

Then:

- Each list getting 1/5 (i.e. 60,000) of the votes will get a seat
- The candidate ranked first on that list will be elected
- Any remaining seats will be awarded to the lists with the largest number of remaining votes

- These candidates will be elected
30 LegCo members will be returned by 28 functional constituencies (FCs).

The FCs represent various sectors of the community - for example the professions, commerce, industry, labour and social welfare - which play a crucial role in the development of Hong Kong.

The 30 LegCo members will be returned through the following FCs:

1. Urban Council
2. Regional Council
3. Heung Yee Kuk
4. Agriculture and Fisheries
5. Insurance
6. Transport
7. Education
8. Legal
9. Accountancy

23. Financial Services
24. Sports, Performing Arts, Culture and Publication
25. Import and Export
26. Textiles and Garment
27. Wholesale and Retail
28. Information Technology

Vote on May 24
Voting systems for the FCs

- For 21 of the FCs, the first past the post system will be used, and each voter may cast one vote.
- For the Labour FC with three seats, the first past the post system will be used, and each voter may cast up to three votes.
- For the six FCs with a small number of voters (i.e. Urban Council, Regional Council, Heung Yee Kuk, Agriculture and Fisheries, Insurance, and Transport), the preferential elimination system will be used. Under the system, a candidate needs an absolute majority of votes to get elected.
10 LegCo members will be returned by the Election Committee (EC).

Composition of the EC

- The EC has 800 members, all of whom are HKSAR permanent residents. They come from four sectors, each with 200 members, namely:
  1. Industrial, commercial and financial
  2. The professions
  3. Labour, social services and religious
  4. Members of the Provisional Legislative Council (PLC), Hong Kong deputies to the National People’s Congress (NPC), representatives of Hong Kong members of the National Committee of the Chinese People’s Political Consultative Conference, and representatives of district-based organisations.

- The majority of the 800 EC members were returned by sub-sector elections on April 2, 1998, with the exception of the ex officio members (PLC members and Hong Kong deputies to the NPC), and nominees from the religious sub-sector.

The 800 EC members will vote to elect 10 LegCo members on May 24.
The block vote system will be used for the election of 10 LegCo members by the EC.

Each EC member is required to choose 10 candidates, no more and no less, by shading in black the ovals against the names of the 10 candidates of his/her choice.

The election result will be determined by first past the post.
Polling Procedures

It takes only 3 minutes to vote . . .

1. Bring along your ID card and go to the polling station as indicated on your poll card. You can call 2588 1212 to ask about the location of your polling station.

2. Note the polling hours and go to vote between 7.30am to 10.30pm.

3. Follow the instructions on your ballot paper when marking your vote. For example, as a GC voter, you should mark a tick '✓' in the circle next to the list of your choice.

4. Fold the ballot paper after marking your choice on it and insert it into the ballot box. Insert the GC ballot into the white box.

Electoral Affairs Commission

The Electoral Affairs Commission (EAC) is an independent, impartial and apolitical statutory body established in September 1997. It is responsible for overseeing the first Legislative Council election of the HKSAR. It comprises three members, all of whom were appointed by the Chief Executive.

The EAC is responsible for:
- Ensuring the elections are conducted fairly, openly and honestly;
- Making recommendations on the delineation of geographical constituencies;
- Making regulations, guidelines and arrangements for the conduct of elections, including the supervision of the registration of electors.

The EAC is chaired by a High Court Judge, Mr Justice Woo Kwok-hing. The two other members are Mr Norman Leung Nai-pang and Ms Elizabeth Shing Shiu-ching.
