AN ACT to consolidate and revise the Laws of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines relating to the Representation of the People and for matters relating thereto.

[On Proclamation]

BE IT enacted by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the House of Assembly of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines and by the authority of the same, as follows:—

[9th March, 1982]

PART I

PRELIMINARY

1. This Act may be cited as the Representation of the People Act, 1982 and it shall come into operation on such date as the Governor-General may, by Proclamation, specify.

2. (1) For the purposes of this Act,—unless the context otherwise requires—

(a) "appointed day" in relation to any year means the day specified as such, for the purposes of this Act for that year by order of the Governor-General.
(b) "candidate" in relation to an election, means a person who is—

(i) elected to serve in the House of Assembly at the election; or

(ii) nominated as a candidate at the election or is declared by himself or by others to be a candidate, on or after the day of the publication of the notice of election in accordance with the election rules for the election or after the dissolution or vacancy in consequence of which the writ for the election was issued;

(c) "constituency" means a constituency specified in the Constituency Boundary Commission Order for the time being in force;

(d) "Court" means the High Court;

(e) "election" means an election of a member to serve in the House of Assembly for a constituency;

(f) "election documents" means the documents which a returning officer is required to transmit to the Supervisor of Elections;

(g) "election officer" includes the Supervisor of Elections, Deputy Supervisor of Elections, Returning Officer, Presiding Officer, Registering Officer and any other officer duly authorised to perform any function relating to the registration of voters, the proceedings on polling day or the counting of the votes;

(h) "election rules" means the rules for the time being applicable to elections;

(i) "legal incapacity" includes (in addition to any incapacity by virtue of any subsisting provision of the common law) any disqualification imposed by this Act or by any other law;

(j) "polling day" means the day fixed for the holding of the poll of voters at any election;
(k) "polling division" means the polling division of a constituency fixed in accordance with section 23;

(l) "polling station" means any enclosed or unenclosed space secured by the returning officer for the taking of votes of the voters on polling day and includes any extensions of such space where the extension is deemed necessary or expedient by the returning officer;

(m) "qualifying date" means, in relation to the qualification of any person to be registered as a voter, the date on which that person applies to be registered as a voter unless, in respect of any particular year of election, the Minister, by order, appoints some other date;

(n) "qualified person" means any person who is qualified to be registered as a voter and entitled to vote as such;

(o) "Registering Officer" means an officer referred to in section 10 as Registering Officer for a constituency or the person acting in that office;

(p) "Registrar" means Registrar of the High Court;

(q) "voter" in relation to any election means any person whose name is for the time being on the appropriate register of voters to be used at that election;

(r) "Supervisor of Elections" means the person appointed as such under section 34 of the constitution or any person acting in that office;

(2) Where the Supervisor of Elections or the returning officer is required or authorised by this Act to give any public notice of an election, he shall, in the absence of any provision to the contrary, (and in the case of the returning officer, subject to any directions given to him by the Supervisor of Elections), do so by advertisement, placards, handbills or by such other means as in his opinion is the best way to afford information to the voters.
3. (1) For the purpose of filling a casual vacancy in the membership of the House of Assembly the date on which the vacancy shall be deemed to have occurred shall be —

(a) in the case of death, upon the date of death;

(b) in the case of an election being declared void on an election petition, upon the date of the certificate of the High Court to that effect;

(c) in the case of a person ceasing to be qualified to be a member of the House of Assembly or becoming disqualified for any reason other than those mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b), upon the date on which his office is declared by the Speaker or by the Court, as the case may be, to have been vacated;

(2) Whenever any casual vacancy arises in the membership of the House of Assembly, the Speaker of the House shall forthwith notify the Governor-General who shall issue a writ for an election to fill the vacancy.

PART II

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY FRANCHISE AND REGISTRATION OF VOTERS

Qualification of Voters

4. No person shall —

(a) at a general election, vote in more than one constituency; or,

(b) at any election, vote more than once in the same constituency; or

(c) at any election, vote without first producing the identification card issued to him under this Act unless he proves to the satisfaction of the presiding officer that he has not been issued with an identification card or that he has been issued with an identification card and that such card has been lost or destroyed:

Provided, that the presiding officer may, in the absence of identification card, accept any other mode of identification that he may deem satisfactory having regard to the circumstances of the case.
5. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act or of any enactment imposing any disqualification for registration as a voter, every person, who has attained the age of eighteen years or upwards, shall be entitled to be registered as a voter in a constituency for the purpose of electing a Representative for that constituency if, on the qualifying date he—

(a) is a citizen of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines, or

(b) is a Commonwealth citizen who has been residing in the State of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines for a period of not less than twelve months immediately preceding the qualifying date, and in either case, has resided in that constituency for a period of not less than three months immediately preceding the qualifying date.

(2) No person shall be qualified to be registered as a voter for more than one constituency.

(3) Where a person has been registered as a voter for a constituency ceases to reside in that constituency he shall not on that account cease to be qualified to be registered as a voter for that constituency until he has become qualified to be registered as a voter for another constituency.

(4) In reckoning the period of residence in a constituency of a voter for the purpose of sub-section (1), the period between the qualifying date and the polling day in that constituency shall not be reckoned as a period of residence.

6. A person is disqualified from being registered as a voter and shall not be so registered if he—

(a) is a person found or declared to be a person of unsound mind or a patient in any establishment maintained wholly or mainly for the reception and treatment of persons suffering from mental illness or mental defectiveness by virtue of any enactment; or

(b) is undergoing any sentence of imprisonment in the State of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines; or
(c) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a competent court in any part of the Commonwealth or under sentence of imprisonment (by whatever name called) exceeding twelve months imposed on him by such a court or under some sentence substituted therefor by a competent authority and has not suffered the punishment to which he was sentenced or has not received a free pardon therefor; or

(d) is under any law disqualified from being registered as a voter.

7. Every person registered as a voter pursuant to this Part shall remain registered unless and until his name is deleted from the register because—

(a) he has died; or

(b) an objection to his registration has been allowed; or

(c) he has been absent from the State of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines for a period exceeding five years except in cases of absence for approved studies abroad; or

(d) he has become disqualified under any law for registration or for exercising his rights as a voter;

8. (1) Every person who is qualified to be registered as a voter for a constituency shall, unless registered in the register of voters for that constituency, within thirty days of the relevant date, apply to the registering officer for that constituency to have his name entered in the quarterly list of voters prepared for that constituency.

(2) Without prejudice to sub-section (1) every occupier of a house shall, within thirty days of the relevant date, furnish the registering officer of the constituency in which the house is situated with the names of every person living in that house who, to the best of his knowledge, is qualified to be registered as a voter for that constituency.
(3) Where a building is let in separate apartments, flats or lodgings, the person receiving the rent payable by the tenants or lodgers, whether on his own account or as the agent of another person, shall, if requested so to do by or on behalf of the registering officer for the constituency in which the building is situate, furnish the registering officer with the name of every tenant or lodger by whom the rent of an apartment, flat or lodging is payable.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

"house" means a dwelling house and includes any building occupied as a separate dwelling;

"occupier" in relation to any building let in separate apartments, flats or lodgings, means the tenant, lodger or other person by whom the rent for such apartment, flat or lodging is payable;

"relevant date" means—

(a) in the case of a person who at the commencement of this Act is not qualified to be registered as a voter, the date on which that person first becomes so qualified;

(b) in any other case the date appointed by the Governor-General by order, for the purposes of this section.

9. Notwithstanding the provisions of section 5, a person shall not be entitled to be registered as a voter until he has complied with the remaining provisions of this Act and the rules and regulations relating to the registration of voters.

10. (1) The Governor-General shall appoint persons who are considered fit and proper, to be Registering Officers and each of them shall be assigned to a constituency.

(2) The Governor-General may appoint any suitable person to assist any Registering Officer in the performance of his duties under this Act.

(3) Subject to the authority, directions and control of the Supervisor of Elections, an Assistant appointed under sub-section (2), unless he is appointed only as an Enumerator, shall have all the powers, and may perform all or any of the duties of a Registering Officer under this Act.
(4) Every Registering Officer, or other person appointed under sub-section (2) shall receive such remuneration as may be prescribed.

(5) Every Registering Officer and every Assistant shall, before entering on his duties as such, take and subscribe an oath in Form A given below and shall transmit such oath to the Supervisor of Elections:

Provided that in the case of an Enumerator, such oath shall be taken in Form B.

(6) The Supervisor of Elections shall be the Chief Registering Officer and he shall supervise the performance by the Registering Officers of their functions under this Act, and every Registering Officer shall comply with such general or specific directions that he may give.

11. (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall cause to be prepared and shall publish not later than the appointed day in 1982 and the same day in every succeeding year a register of voters for each constituency who are entitled to vote at any election.

(2) Not later than the appointed day in 1982 the Supervisor of Elections shall cause to be prepared and shall publish a preliminary register of voters for each constituency which shall consist of all qualified persons —

(a) whose names appear in the register of voters for that constituency last published under the House of Assembly Elections Act, 1951; and who have been photographed for the purpose of being issued with identification cards under Section 19 of this Act.

(b) who although not registered in the register mentioned in paragraph (a), have since the publication of that register and not later than the appointed day in any relevant year been photographed for the purpose of being issued with identification cards under section 19 of this Act for that year.

(3) The preliminary register of voters shall not include persons who, on the information available to the Supervisor of Elections, appear since the publication of the last register —

(a) to have died; or

(b) to have ceased, as on the relevant date, to possess the qualifications for registration spelt out in section 5 or have incurred any disqualifications under section 6 or have lost the right to remain in the register pursuant to section 7.
(4) A person who is entitled to be registered as a voter for a constituency but whose name does not appear in the preliminary register of voters for that constituency shall, subject to the provisions of the following sub-sections, be registered upon his making application in such form as may be prescribed.

(5) Where any person whose name does not appear in the appropriate preliminary register of voters for a constituency claims to be qualified to be a voter as mentioned in sub-section (4), he may make personal application at a prescribed place in the constituency and his claim shall, subject to the regulations, be determined as if it were a claim made under section 14.

(6) The Supervisor of Elections shall make all additions to the appropriate preliminary register and shall make removals therefrom in consequence of any action taken under this section or under section 7 and shall publish not later than the date appointed for the purpose the preliminary register of voters so corrected as the register of voters entitled to vote at any election for that constituency.

(7) The registers of voters required by sub-section (1) to be prepared and published in each year after 1982 shall consist of—

(a) all persons who were registered in the register of voters last published for that constituency; and

(b) all persons whose names appear in the supplementary registers of voters prepared and published for that constituency, subsequent to the date of publication of the register mentioned in paragraph (a), as ordinarily resident in that constituency and qualified under this Act as voters, but shall not include persons who, on the information available to the Supervisor of Elections, appear, since the publication of the last register to have died or to have ceased to be qualified for the reasons set out in clause (b) of sub-section (3).
13. (1) Not later than the appointed day in 1982 and not later than that day in every quarter in every succeeding year, the Supervisor of Elections shall cause to be prepared and shall publish as soon as possible thereafter (and in any case not later than the 15th day of the next month following the end of the quarter) a list of voters for each constituency which shall consist of all persons—

(a) whose names appeared on the register for another constituency who have notified the Supervisor of Elections of a change of address in this constituency in accordance with the regulations and who appear to be ordinarily resident therein;

(b) whose names appeared in the register for the constituency who have effected a change of address within the constituency and who have notified the Supervisor of Elections in accordance with the regulations;

(c) who have attained the age of eighteen years and who appear to the Supervisor of Elections to be otherwise qualified; and

(d) who have otherwise become qualified to be voters.

(2) The names of those persons referred to in sub-section (1) shall, as far as practicable, appear—

(a) in the case of those persons mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that sub-section, in the quarterly list prepared for the quarter in which the notification was made; and

(b) in the case of those persons mentioned in paragraphs (c) and (d) of that sub-section, in the quarterly list prepared for the quarter in which a claim to be registered has been made.

14. (1) All claims for registration made by a person whose name does not appear in the register or the appropriate quarterly list and all objections to the registration of persons whose names appear in the registers of voters and in the quarterly lists, as the case may be, shall be determined in accordance with the regulations by the appropriate registering officer acting with respect to the constituency to which the register or list in question relates.

(2) Notwithstanding sub-section (1), when a claim thereunder has been disallowed, the registering officer may, in accordance with the regulations refer the matter to the Supervisor of Elections whose decision thereon shall be final.

15. The Supervisor of Elections shall make all additions to the appropriate quarterly lists and shall make removals therefrom in consequence of any action taken under section 7 or section 13 and shall publish as soon after the fifteenth day of the next succeeding month after the end of the quarter (and in any case not later than the last day of each such month) the corrected quarterly lists as the revised quarterly lists of voters.

16. The Supervisor of Elections shall not later than seven days after the publication of the revised quarterly list of voters for each constituency cause to be published a supplementary register of all the names of persons which appear in the revised quarterly list published in accordance with section 15 if such persons have been photographed in accordance with the Regulations for the purpose of being issued with identification cards.

17. The register of voters and the supplementary register of voters published for each constituency under sections 11 and 16 respectively in any year shall constitute the register of voters for that constituency and shall be used for any election held in that constituency after the publication thereon until it is superseded by the register of voters published and constituted for that constituency in the next succeeding year in accordance with this Part.

18. (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall in each year make out from information furnished to him under the provisions relating to election offences under this Act, a corrupt and illegal practices list containing—

(a) the names and description of the persons who, though otherwise qualified to be registered in a register of voters for each constituency, are not so qualified because they have been convicteed or reported guilty of a corrupt or illegal practice; and

(b) a statement of the offence of which each person has been found guilty.

(2) The Supervisor of Elections shall—

(a) in the case of the year 1982, at the same time as he publishes the preliminary register under section 11(2); and

(b) in the case of any year after 1982 at least fourteen days before he publishes the register for any succeeding year as is required by section 11(1), publish the corrupt practices list by making a copy thereof available for inspection at the specified address of each registering officer.

19. The Supervisor of Elections shall cause identification cards containing the prescribed matters to be issued in accordance with the Regulations.

20. (1) The registers of voters prepared under this Act and the Regulations shall for the purposes of this Part be conclusive on the following questions—

(a) whether or not any person registered therein was on the date of publication of the register resident at the address shown;

(b) whether or not that address is in any constituency or any particular part of that constituency.

(2) A person registered as a voter shall not be excluded from voting on the ground that he is not a Commonwealth citizen or has not attained the age of eighteen or has otherwise become subject to any legal incapacity to vote:

Provided that the vote so cast may on scrutiny be subject to rejection and any such person may be liable for the penalty in that regard.
(3) No misnomer or inaccurate description of any person or place named in the register of voters or in any list, record, nomination paper, ballot paper, notice or other document required for the purposes of this Act shall affect the full operation of the document with respect to that person or place in any case where the description of the person or place is such as may be commonly understood.

PART III
OFFENCES AND ELECTION MACHINERY

Offences.

21. A person who—

(a) has ceased to be a Commonwealth citizen after attaining the age of eighteen years and has not subsequent thereto become a Commonwealth citizen; or

(b) has not attained the age of eighteen years; or

(c) does not have the requisite residential qualifications for inclusion in the register of voters;

and who wilfully makes any false claim to be included in the register of voters shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(2) A person who objects under this Act or the Regulations to the inclusion of any other person in any list or register relating to voters prepared under this Act or the Regulations upon any ground which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

(3) A person who knowingly makes a false statement for the purpose of being registered as a voter shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.
No. 7.
Representation of the People 1982.

22. (1) A registering officer or an enumerator who wilfully or without reasonable excuse omits to register the name of any person qualified to be registered shall be guilty of an offence, and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months or to both.

(2) A registering officer or an enumerator convicted of an offence under sub-section (1) shall, in addition to any penalty provided in that sub-section, forfeit his right to payment for his services as a registering officer or as an enumerator, as the case may be, and, subject to sub-section (3), shall be incapable during a period of seven years from the date of his conviction—

(a) of being qualified as a voter and shall not vote at any election; and

(b) of being elected a member of the House of Assembly.

(3) Notwithstanding that an appeal is made against a conviction for an offence under sub-section (1) the incapacity provided for by sub-section (2) in the event of any such conviction shall continue until the appeal is determined and thereafter, unless the conviction is quashed, such incapacity shall remain in force for a period of seven years from the determination of the appeal unless the court hearing the appeal directs that the period of seven years shall run from the date of conviction.

23. (1) Subject to this section, each constituency shall be divided into polling divisions.

(2) Each polling division shall so far as practicable contain approximately four hundred qualified persons.

(3) Where the Supervisor of Elections is satisfied that because of congestion or of the sparsity of the population or other special circumstances, it is more convenient so to do, he may, notwithstanding anything in sub-section (2), constitute a polling division containing either more or less than four hundred qualified persons.

(4) In determining the boundaries of any polling division the Supervisor of Elections shall have regard to geographical considerations and such other factors as may affect the facilities of communications between various places within the polling division.

(5) It is the duty of the Supervisor of Elections—

(a) to keep polling divisions of each constituency under review; and

(b) by notice and subject to the approval of Cabinet, to make alteration in such divisions including the abolition or establishment of any polling division as he may consider proper having regard to provisions contained in sub-sections (2) to (4).

PART IV

Administrative Provisions

24. (1) For the purposes of an election, the Supervisor of Elections shall be the Chief Electoral Officer and he shall

(a) exercise general directions and supervision over the administrative conduct of the elections and enforce on the part of all election officers fairness, impartiality and compliance with the provisions made by or under this Act;

(b) issue to election officers such instructions as he considers necessary for ensuring effective implementation of the said provisions;

(c) execute and perform all other functions which are conferred or imposed upon him by or under this Act.
(2) For the purposes of an election, the Governor-General may appoint a Deputy Supervisor of Elections and he shall, subject to any general or specific directions of the Supervisor of Elections, have power to perform any of the functions which the Supervisor of Elections is by or under this Act required to perform.

25. The Cabinet may, in consultation with the Supervisor of Elections, appoint for each constituency a returning officer who shall receive such remuneration as the Cabinet may specify for the purpose.

26. (1) The Supervisor of Elections may appoint one or more election clerks for each constituency who shall receive such remuneration as the Cabinet may specify for the purpose and where more than one such clerk has been appointed for a constituency the Supervisor of Elections shall assign an order of seniority among them.

(2) If at any time between the issue of a writ and the declaration of the result of the election the returning officer dies or becomes incapable of performing his functions as such, the election clerk where only one such clerk has been appointed or the senior election clerk where more than one such clerk has been appointed shall forthwith report the fact to the Supervisor of Elections and shall perform the functions of the returning officer until some other returning officer is appointed or the returning officer ceases to be incapable of performing his functions, as the case may be.

27. (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall appoint a presiding officer for each polling station.

(2) The Supervisor of Elections shall appoint for each polling station such number of poll clerks as may be necessary and where more than one such clerk has been appointed for a polling station the Supervisor of Elections shall assign an order of seniority among them.

(3) If the presiding officer dies or becomes incapable of performing his functions during the taking of the poll, the poll clerk where only one such clerk has been appointed or the senior poll clerk where more than one such clerk has been appointed shall report the fact to the Supervisor of Elections and shall, until some other person is appointed as presiding officer by the Supervisor of Elections, perform the functions of the presiding officer and may appoint some other person to act as poll clerk.

(4) Any person appointed by the Supervisor of Elections as presiding officer and any person appointed as poll clerk under sub-section (3) shall respectively perform the functions of those officers, whilst acting in the capacity of presiding officer or poll clerk, as the case may be, and shall receive in respect of their services such remuneration as the Cabinet may specify for the purpose.

28. No person shall be subject to any incapacity to vote at an election because he is or is acting as Supervisor of Elections, Deputy Supervisor of Elections, returning officer, election clerk, presiding officer, or is acting in any capacity as an election officer.

29. Every election officer shall take an oath in the Form I set out in the First Schedule before a Justice of the Peace, returning officer or presiding officer and every such officer is hereby authorised to administer oath for the purpose.

PART V

Conduct of Elections

30. (1) For the purposes of every election the Governor-General shall issue a writ under the Public Seal addressed to the returning officer for the constituency for which the election is to be held and every such writ shall be forwarded to the Supervisor of Elections for transmission to the returning officer to whom it is addressed.

(2) Every writ issued for the purposes of subsection (1) shall be in the Form 2 set out in the First Schedule and shall specify the day of nomination of candidates, the day upon which, if necessary, the poll shall be taken, being not less than fifteen and not more than twenty-one clear days thereafter, and the day the writ is returnable to the Governor-General.

(3) On receipt of the writ, the returning officer shall endorse the date of receipt on the writ and shall proceed to hold an election in accordance with the Election Rules.

(4) For the purposes of this section where the last day of time allowed for the issue of the writ falls on a Sunday, public holiday, or day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning then the time shall stand extended until the next following day that is not one of the days mentioned above.

(5) In computing the period of time for the purposes of sub-section (2) Sundays and public holidays shall be included.

31. (1) Where at any time between the issue of a writ and the day appointed by the writ for the holding of a poll at any election, the Governor-General acting in accordance with the advice of the Prime Minister, is satisfied that it is expedient so to do because of—

(a) a situation where the State of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines becomes directly or indirectly involved in any war; or

(b) the proclamation of a state of emergency which is in force; or

(c) the occurrence of any earthquake, hurricane, flood, fire, outbreak of pestilence or outbreak of infectious disease or other calamity whether similar to the foregoing or not; or

(d) the likelihood that the register of voters for all electoral districts or for any particular electoral district or constituency will not be printed before the day appointed under section 30 of this Act for the holding of the poll or that any essential electoral supplies or materials will not be available in adequate quantities upon such day, he may, by proclamation, adjourn the holding of the poll to some other day specified in such proclamation not being more than ninety days after the day specified in the writ issued under section 30 of this Act.

(2) Any proclamation under sub-section (1) of this section made pursuant to the provisions of paragraph (c) or (d) of sub-section (1) of this section may be expressed to apply only to such electoral districts or constituencies not so specified upon the day appointed for the taking of the poll under section 30 of this Act.

(3) Where any proclamation is made under this section the writs for all electoral districts or constituencies to which such proclamation applies shall be deemed to have been amended by the substitution, for the day specified in such writs as being the day for the holding of the poll, the day so specified in such proclamation.

(4) Where any proclamation under this section is made before the day which would have been nomination day if such proclamation had not been made, the nomination day shall be deemed to have been adjourned to the twenty-third day next before the day to which the holding of the poll is adjourned by such proclamation:

Provided that if such twenty-third day is a Sunday or a public holiday, the nomination day shall be deemed to be adjourned to the first day not being a Sunday or a public holiday after such twenty-third day.

(5) Where any proclamation is made under this section after nomination day the adjournment by such proclamation of the day upon which the poll is taken shall in no way affect the validity of any nomination validly made upon nomination day and no other nomination shall be made.

Rules of elections.

32. (1) The proceedings at an election shall be conducted in accordance with such rules as may be made by Cabinet;
Provided that until any rule is made modifying the same in any respect, the rules specified in the Second Schedule to this Act shall be deemed to be the election rules applicable in relation to elections to the House of Assembly:

Provided further that those provisions of the Second Schedule as relate to election offences shall not be subject to any amendment by the Cabinet in exercise of the rule making power.

(2) It is the general duty of the returning officer at an election to do all such acts and things as may be necessary for effectively conducting the election in the manner provided by the Election Rules.

(3) No election shall be declared invalid because of any act or omission by the returning officer or any other person in breach of his official duty in connection with the election or otherwise of the Election Rules if it appears to the High Court that the election was so conducted as to be substantially in accordance with the law as to the elections, and that the act or omission did not affect its result.

33. (1) Save as otherwise provided by Part II and the Election Rules all persons voting as voters at an election shall do so in person at the polling station allotted to them in accordance with the provisions made by or under this Act.

(2) Where a constable is or is likely to be on the day of any election, sent or employed in the discharge of his duty so as to prevent him from voting at the polling station at which he would otherwise be entitled by law to vote, the following provisions shall have effect:

(1) Such constable may, at any time within seven days before the election, apply to the Commissioner of Police for a certificate and the Commissioner of Police shall thereupon give a certificate under his hand, stating the name of the constable, his number in the police force, his number and description on the register of voters, and the fact that he is so sent or employed;
(2) In every case where a certificate is issued to any constable, the Commissioner of Police shall send an intimation of that fact to the presiding officer of the Polling Station at which the constable could, but for the certificate, have exercised his right to vote.

(3) The Presiding Officer at any polling station shall on production by such constable of the said certificate, allow him to vote at that station, and shall forthwith cancel the said certificate, and deal with the same in like manner as the counterfoils of voting papers are directed by law to be dealt with;

(4) No such constable shall under this section be entitled to vote at any election at which he would not but for this section, be entitled to vote, nor more than once in any election, and if he so votes, or attempts to vote, he shall be subject to all the penalties imposed by law on a person personating or attempting to personate a voter at such election.

(5) In this section—

(a) "Constable" includes any person belonging to the Royal Saint Vincent Police Force;

(b) "Commissioner of Police" includes any person for the time being in command of the Royal Saint Vincent Police Force or acting in that capacity".

PART VI.

QUALIFICATION OF MEMBERS

Qualifications for Representatives and Senators.

34. (1) No person shall be qualified to be elected or appointed as a Representative or Senator (hereinafter in this section referred to as a member of the House of Assembly) if he—

(a) is by virtue of his own act, under any acknow-
(a) has been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law;

(b) is a minister of religion;

(c) holds or is acting in the office of judge of the Supreme Court;

(d) subject to such exceptions and limitations as may be prescribed by Parliament, holds or is acting in any public office or is a paid member of any defence force of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines;

(e) is an undischarged bankrupt, having been adjudged or otherwise declared bankrupt under any law;

(f) is a person certified to be insane or otherwise adjudged to be of unsound mind under any law;

(g) is under sentence of death imposed on him by a court of law in any part of the Commonwealth or is serving a sentence of imprisonment (by whatever name called) exceeding twelve months imposed on him by such a court or substituted by competent authority for some other sentence imposed on him by such a court, or is under such a sentence of imprisonment the execution of which has been suspended;

(h) subject to the exceptions and limitations set out in Section 35, has any such interest in any government contract:

Provided that a minister of religion may be appointed as a Senator.

(2) The provision relating to disqualification referred to in section 26 of the Constitution shall be as set out in section 35 of this Act.

(3) A person shall not be qualified to be elected as a Representative if he is a Senator and a person shall not be qualified to be appointed a Senator if he is a Representative or is nominated for election as such.
(4) For the purposes of this section and sections 35 and 36—

(a) "government contract" means any contract made with the Government or with a department of the Government or with an officer of the Government contracting as such;

(b) "minister of religion" means any person in holy orders and any other person, the functions of whose principal occupation include teaching or preaching in any congregation for religious worship.

35. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section, no person shall be qualified to be a member of the House of Assembly if he, or any Firm in which he is a partner or any body corporate which he controls, is a party to any contract made with the Government of the State, or a department of that Government, or an officer of that Government contracting as such, for the sale or lease of land (including any interest in or over land), the sale of goods, or the rendering of services, by that person or by that firm or body corporate.

(2) A person shall not be disqualified to be elected or appointed as a member of the House of Assembly by virtue of the preceding sub-section—

(a) if, on the date of his nomination for election, or appointment, as the case may be, obligations imposed by the contract on him, or on the firm or body corporate as aforesaid, have been wholly performed or are unenforceable;

(b) by reason only of a contract for the sale of goods where the amount or value of the consideration does not exceed the specified amount and the sale does not form part of a larger transaction or series of transactions in respect of which the amount or value, or aggregate amount of value, of the consideration exceeds the specified amount;

(c) by reason only of any contract made pursuant to any arrangements for providing guaranteed prices or assured markets for producers generally of any produce, being arrangements made by or under any law in force in the State;

(d) by reason only of any contract made in pursuance of an obligation imposed by or under any law in force in the State;

(e) by reason only of any contract under which professional services to members of the public are rendered, wholly or partly at the public expense, in pursuance of arrangements for the provision of such services by members of a profession generally;

(f) by reason only of any contract made by that person in the capacity of a member of a Government of the State or by any body corporate which he controls in that capacity; or

(g) by reason only of any contract made by that person in the capacity of a member of any Board, panel, committee or other similar body (whether incorporated or not) established under any law in force in the State or of any contract made by any body corporate which he controls in that capacity.

(3) A person shall not be disqualified to be elected or appointed as a member of the House of Assembly by reason of such a contract as is referred to in sub-section (1), if, within one month before the date of election or appointment, as the case may be, he publishes in the official gazette of the State and in a local newspaper a notice setting out the nature of that contract and his interest therein.

(4) For the purposes of this section—

(a) a person controls a body corporate if he has the power to secure, by means of the holding of relation to that or any other body corporate, or shares or the possession of voting power in or in relation to that or any other body corporate, or by virtue of powers conferred by the articles of association or other documents regulating the constitution of that or any other body corporate, that the affairs of the first mentioned body corporate, are conducted in accordance with his wishes; and

(b) “specified amount” means one hundred and twenty dollars.

36. The seat of a member of the House of Assembly shall become vacant if any circumstances arise that, if he were not a member of the House of Assembly would cause him, subject to sub-section (3) of section 35, to be disqualified for election or appointment thereto by virtue of that section:

Provided that, if in the circumstances it appears to the House of Assembly to be just so to do, the House may exempt any member from vacating his seat under the provisions of this section, if such member, before making any such contract as is referred to in sub-section (1) of the said section 35, or before or as soon as practicable after otherwise becoming a party to it, or otherwise interested in it (whether through a firm in which he is a partner or through a body corporate which he controls), discloses to the House the nature of such contract and his interest therein.

PART VII
ELECTION OFFENCES

37. (1) No intoxicating liquor shall be sold, offered for sale, or be given away, at any premises to which a licence issued under the Liquor Licences Act applies at any time between the opening and the closing of the poll on polling day.

(2) No intoxicating liquor shall be supplied to any person at any premises to which a licence issued under the Registration of Clubs Act applies, at any time between the opening and the closing of the poll on polling day.

(3) Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of either of the preceding sub-sections shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months.

(4) In this section “intoxicating liquor” means spirits, wine, beer, porter, cider, sherry and any fermented, distilled, or spirituous liquor which cannot, according to the law, for the time being in force, be legally sold except in accordance with a licence.

38. (1) Every employer shall, on polling day, allow to every voter in his employ reasonable time for him to vote, and no employer shall make any deduction from the pay or other remuneration of any such employee or impose upon or exact from him any penalty by reason of his absence during that time.

(2) Any employer who, directly or indirectly, refuses, or by intimidation, undue influence, or in any other way interferes with the granting to any voter in his employ, of the reasonable time for voting, as in this section provided, shall on summary conviction be liable to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for any term not exceeding six months.

39. Every election officer who—

(a) makes, in any record, return or other document which he is required to keep or make under this Act, any entry which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be false, or does not believe to be true; or

(b) permits any person whom he knows or has reasonable cause to believe not to be a blind person or an incapacitated person to vote in a manner provided for blind persons or incapacitated persons as the case may be; or

(c) refuses to permit any person whom he knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be a blind person or an incapacitated person to vote in the manner provided for blind persons or incapacitated persons, as the case may be; or

(d) wilfully prevents any person from voting at the polling station at which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe such person is entitled to vote; or

(e) wilfully rejects or refuses to count any ballot paper which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe is validly cast for any candidate in accordance with the provisions of the Act; or

(f) wilfully counts any ballot paper as being cast for any candidate, which he knows or has reasonable cause to believe was not validly cast for such candidate, shall be guilty of an offence under this section and, on conviction on indictment, shall be liable to be imprisoned for any term not exceeding two years.

40. No person shall furnish or supply any loud speaker, bunting, ensign, banner, standard, or set of colours or any other flag, to any person with intent that it shall be carried, worn or used on motor cars, trucks or other vehicles, as political propaganda, on polling day, and no person shall, with any such intent, carry, wear or use, on motor cars, trucks or other vehicles, any such loud speaker, bunting, ensign, banner, standard or set of colours or any other flag, on polling day.

41. (1) No person shall furnish or supply any flag, ribbon, label or like favour to or for any person with intent that it be worn or used by any person within any constituency on polling day as a party badge to distinguish the wearer as the supporter of any candidate, or of the political or other opinions entertained or supposed to be entertained by such candidate; and no person shall use or wear any flag, ribbon, label, or other favour, as such badge, within any constituency on polling day.

(2) Nothing contained in this section or in section 40 shall be deemed to extend to the furnishing or supplying of any banner bearing only the name of any candidate or only such name preceded by the words "Vote for", or of any rosette or of any favour bearing the symbol allotted to any candidate or to the use of any such banner or any vehicle or of any such rosette or favour.

42. Any person who contravenes any of the provisions of section 40 or section 41 shall be liable on summary conviction to a fine of one thousand dollars or to imprisonment for any period not exceeding one year.
43. (1) The following persons shall be deemed guilty of bribery within the meaning of this Act—

(a) Every person who, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, gives, lends, agrees to give or lend, or offers, promises to procure or to endeavour to procure any money or valuable consideration to or for any voter, or to or for any other person in order to induce any voter to vote or refrain from voting, or corruptly does any such act as aforesaid on account of any voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election;

(b) Every person who directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, gives or procures, or agrees to give or procure, or offers, promises, or promises to procure or to endeavour to procure, any office, place or employment to or for any voter, or to or for any person on behalf of any voter or to or for any other person in order to induce such voter to vote or refrain from voting or corruptly does any such act as aforesaid on account of any voter having voted or refrained from voting at any election;

(c) Every person who, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf makes any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement, or agreement as aforesaid to or for any person, in order to induce such person to procure, or endeavour to procure, the return of any person as an elected member of the House of Assembly, or the vote of any voter at any election;

(d) Every person who, upon or in consequence of any such gift, loan, offer, promise, procurement or agreement, procures or engages, promises or endeavours to procure the return of any person as an elected member of the House of Assembly or the vote of any voter at any election:
(e) Every person who advances or pays, or causes to be paid, any money to or to the use of any other person with the intent that such money, or any part thereof, shall be expended in bribery at any election or who knowingly, pays or causes to be paid, any money to any person in discharge of repayment of any money wholly or in part expended in bribery at any such election;

(f) Every voter who, before or during any election, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives, agrees, or contracts for any money, gift, loan or valuable consideration, office, place or employment for himself or for any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or for refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting at any election; and

(g) Every person who, after any election, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives any money or valuable consideration on account of any person having induced any other person to vote or refrain from voting at any such election.

(2) The provisions of sub-section (1) shall not extend or be construed to extend to any money paid or agreed to be paid for or on account of any legal expenses incurred in good faith at or concerning an election.

(3) For the purposes of sub-section (2), “legal expenses” include—

(i) the payment of the agents, clerks, canvassers and messengers of candidates;

(ii) payments made for the purpose of hiring vehicles for the conveyance of voters to or from a polling station;

(iii) payments made for the use of any premises for a public meeting in furtherance of the candidature of any person or for the use of any committee room or office for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of a candidate;

(iv) payments made in respect of postage, stationery, printing, advertising, the distribution of advertising materials and the use of any public address system.

44. The following persons shall be deemed guilty of treating within the meaning of this Act,—

(1) every person who corruptly, by himself or by any other person, either before, during, or after an election, directly or indirectly, gives, or provides or pays wholly or in part the expenses of giving or providing any food, drink, entertainment, or provision to or for any person for the purpose of corruptly influencing that person, or any other person, to vote or to refrain from voting at such election, or on account of such person or any other person having voted or refrained from voting at such election;

(2) every person who corruptly accepts or takes any such food, drink, entertainment or provision.

45. Every person who, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, makes use of or threatens to make use of any force, violence, or restraint, or inflicts or threatens to inflict by himself or by any other person any temporal or spiritual injury, damage, harm, or loss upon or against any person, in order to induce or compel such person to vote or refrain from voting or on account of such person having voted or refrained from voting at any election, or who by abduction, duress, or any fraudulent contrivance, impedes or prevents the free exercise of the franchise of any voter, or thereby compels, induces, or prevails upon any voter either to give or refrain from giving his vote at any election, shall be guilty of undue influence within the meaning of this Act.
46. Every person who at an election applies for a ballot paper in the name of another person, whether that name be the name of a person living or dead or of a fictitious person, or who, having once voted at any election, applies at the same election for a ballot paper in his own name, shall be guilty of personation within the meaning of this Act.

47. Every person who is guilty of bribery, treating or undue influence, under the provisions of this Act, shall, on summary conviction thereof, be liable to imprisonment for six months or to a fine of five hundred dollars.

48. Every person who is guilty of personating or aiding, abetting, counselling or procuring the commission of the offence of personation, shall, on conviction thereof on indictment be liable to imprisonment for two years, with or without hard labour or be fined any sum not exceeding two thousand five hundred dollars.

49. Every person who is convicted of bribery, treating, undue influence or personation or of aiding, counselling or procuring the commission of the offence of personation shall (in addition to any other punishment) be incapable during a period of seven years from the date of conviction —

(a) of being registered as a voter, or of voting at any election of a member of the House of Assembly;

(b) of being elected or appointed a member of the House of Assembly, or if elected or appointed before his conviction, of retaining his seat as such member.

50. (1) Every person who —

(a) votes, or induces or procures any person to vote, at any election, knowing that he or such other person is prohibited by the constitution or this Act or by any law from voting at such election;

(b) before or during an election knowingly publishes a false statement of the withdrawal of a candidate at such election for the purpose of promoting or procuring the election of another candidate;
(c) between the date of notification by the Supervisor of Elections of the issue by the Governor-General of a writ for the purposes of an election and the day previous to the polling at such elections, whether in a general election or in a bye-election, acts in a disorderly manner with intent to prevent the transaction of the business of a public meeting called for the purpose of promoting the election of a candidate as a member of the House of Assembly.

shall be guilty of an illegal practice, and shall, on summary conviction thereof, be liable to a fine of five hundred dollars and be incapable, during a period of five years from the date of conviction of being registered as a voter, or voting at any election.

(2) Every person who, between the date of notification by the Supervisor of Elections of an issue by the Governor-General of the Writ for purposes of an Election and the day previous to polling at such election, whether in a general election or in a bye-election, incites, combines or conspires with others to act in a disorderly manner with intent to prevent the transaction of the business of a public meeting called for the purpose of promoting the election of a candidate as a member of the House of Assembly, shall be guilty of an illegal practice and shall, on conviction on indictment thereof, be liable to imprisonment for two years, and be incapable during a period of five years from the date of conviction of being registered as a voter or to vote at any election.

(3) Any person who, before or during an election, for the purpose of affecting the return, of any candidate or prospective candidate at such election, makes or publishes any false statement of fact in relation to the personal character or conduct of such candidate shall be guilty of an illegal practice and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine of five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for one year or to both such fine and imprisonment:

(4) Any person who is convicted of any offence declared to be an illegal practice under this or any other section of this Act shall, in addition to any other penalty for

(b) post or cause to be posted any such bill, placard or poster as aforesaid; or

(c) distribute or cause to be distributed any printed document for the said purpose, unless the bill, placard, poster or document bears upon the face thereof the name and address of the printer and publisher.

(2) For the purposes of this section, any process for multiplying copies of a document, other than copying it by hand shall be deemed to be printing, and the expression "printer" shall be construed accordingly.

(3) A candidate or agent acting in contravention of this section shall be deemed guilty of an illegal practice, and be liable to be punished as if he had committed an offence under sub-section (1) of section 50 and any person so acting shall be liable to be punished as provided therein.
52. (1) Every person who—

(a) Forges or counterfeits, or fraudulently defaces or destroys, any ballot paper; or

(b) without due authority supplies a ballot paper to any person; or

(c) fraudulently puts into any ballot box any paper other than the ballot paper which he is authorised by law to put in; or

(d) fraudulently takes out of the polling station any ballot paper; or

(e) without due authority destroys, takes, opens, or otherwise interferes with any ballot box or packet of ballot papers then in use for the purposes of any election; or

(f) not being duly registered as a voter, votes at an election, shall be liable on summary conviction, if he is returning officer or presiding officer, or clerk employed at a polling station, to imprisonment for one year or to a fine of five hundred dollars, and, if he is any other person, to imprisonment for six months or to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars.

(2) In any information or prosecution for an offence in relation to the ballot boxes, ballot papers, and other things in use at an election, the property in such ballot boxes, ballot papers, or things may be stated to be with the returning officer at such election.

53: (1) Every officer, clerk and agent, in attendance at polling station shall maintain and aid in maintaining the secrecy of the voting in such station, and shall not communicate except for some purpose authorised by law before the poll is closed, to any person any information as to the name or number on the list of voters of any voter who has or has not applied for a ballot paper or voted at that station, and no person shall interfere with or attempt to interfere with a voter when marking his vote or otherwise attempt to obtain in the polling station any information as to the candidate for whom any voter in such station is about to vote or has voted.
(2) Every officer, clerk and agent in attendance at the counting of the votes shall maintain and aid in maintain-in the secrecy of the voting and shall not attempt to communicate any information obtained at such counting as to the candidate or candidates for whom any vote is given in any particular ballot paper.

(3) No person shall, directly or indirectly, induce any voter to display his ballot paper after he has marked it so as to make known to any person the name of the candidate or candidates for whom or against whose name he has so marked his vote.

(4) Every person who acts in contravention of any of the provisions of this section shall be liable, on summary conviction, to imprisonment for six months or to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars.

54. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2) of this section during the hours when the poll is open upon election day no person shall assemble or congregate within one hundred yards of any building in which is situate any polling station.

(2) The provisions of subsection (1) shall not apply—

(a) to any voter who is waiting to poll his vote.
at such polling station and who obeys any instructions which may be given by the presiding officer or any constable for the purpose of forming a queue with other voters also so waiting; or

(b) to any person who may under the provisions of this Act lawfully enter or remain in such polling station.

(3) Every person who contravenes or fails to comply with any of the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.
55. (1) During the hours that the poll is open upon election day no person shall in any public road or in any public place within one hundred yards of a building in which a polling station is situate, seek to influence any voter to vote for any candidate or to ascertain for what candidate any voter intends to vote or has voted.

(2) Every person who contravenes in any manner the provisions of subsection (1) shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on summary conviction thereof to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for six months or to both such fine and imprisonment.

PART VIII

ELECTION PETITIONS

56. A petition complaining of an undue return or undue election of a member of the House of Assembly, in this Act called an election petition, may be presented to the High Court by any one or more of the following persons, that is to say—

(1) a person who voted or had a right to vote at the election to which the petition relates;

(2) a person claiming to have had a right to be returned at such election;

(3) a person alleging himself to have been a candidate at such election.

57. (1) The following provisions shall apply with respect to the presentation of an election petition—

(a) The petition shall be presented within twenty-one days after the return made by the returning officer of the member in respect of whose election the petition relates, unless it concerns an allegation of any corrupt practice upon the making of the return of election specifically alleges a payment of money or other reward to have been made by any member, or on his account, or with his privity since the time of such return, in pursuance or in furtherance of such corrupt practice, in which case the petition may be presented at any time within twenty-eight days after the date of such payment;

(b) at the time of the presentation of the petition or within three days afterwards, security for the payment of all costs, charges and expenses that may become payable by the petitioner—

(i) to any person summoned as a witness on his behalf, or

(ii) to the member whose election or return is complained of, or to any other person named as a respondent in the petition, shall be given on behalf of the petitioner;

(c) the security referred to in clause (b) shall be an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars and shall be given by recognizance to be entered into by any number of sureties not exceeding four approved by the Registrar of the High Court, or partly in one way and partly in the other.

(2) Rules, not inconsistent with provisions of this Act or of the constitution, as to the deposit of security and the practice and procedure for the service and hearing of election petitions and matters incidental thereto, may be made by the Chief Justice.

58. (1) Every election petition shall be tried before the High Court in the same manner as a suit commenced by a writ or summons.

(2) At the conclusion of the trial, the judge shall determine whether the member of this House whose return or election is complained of or any and what other person was duly returned or elected, or whether the election was void, and shall certify such determination to the Governor-General, and the return shall be confirmed or altered, or a writ for a new election shall be issued, as the case may require, in accordance with such determination.
59. Notwithstanding anything contained in the provisions of this Act no election shall be declared invalid by reason of non-compliance with the provisions of this Act or of the rules thereto or of the regulations made thereunder, or any mistake in the use of the forms prescribed under this Act, if it appears to the court having cognizance of the question that the election was conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in this Act, and that such non-compliance or mistake did not affect the result of the election.

60. At the trial of an election petition the court shall, subject to the provisions of this Act or of any rules or regulations thereunder, have the same powers, jurisdiction and authority, and witnesses shall be subpoenaed and sworn in, in the same manner as nearly as circumstances will admit, as in a trial of a civil action in the High Court, and shall be subject to the same penalties for perjury.

PART IX

PROVISIONS RELATING TO THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY

61. Every person elected as a member of the House of Assembly shall before sitting or voting therein, make the Declaration of qualification in Form A and take and sign the oath of allegiance in Form B hereunder.

FORM A

DECLARATION OF QUALIFICATION

I, do solemnly declare that I am truly and bona fide qualified to be elected a member of the House of Assembly of Saint Vincent and the Grenadines according to the true intent and meaning of the Representation of the People Act 1982, and the Rules and Regulations made thereunder.
"FORM B

OATH OF ALLEGIANCE

I, do swear that I will be faithful and bear true allegiance to Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, Her Heirs and Successors, according to law.

SO HELP ME GOD."

62. Every member of the House of Assembly shall conform to the standing orders of the House of Assembly.

63. (1) A person who has not been elected and returned in accordance with the provisions of this Act who comes or attempts to come into the House of Assembly claiming to be a member of the House having entered acts as a member of that House, shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

(2) Proceedings for an offence under sub-section (1) may be brought in the name of the Clerk of the House of Assembly.

64. For the avoidance of doubts it is hereby declared that the House of Assembly in being at any further demise of the Crown shall not be determined or dissolved by such demise but shall continue so long as it would have continued but for such demise, unless it is prorogued or dissolved.

65. The election of the Speaker and Deputy Speaker shall be made as provided in the constitution and in accordance with the standing orders.

PART X

MISCELLANEOUS

66. (1) The Governor-General may, by notification, make regulations with respect to—

(a) the form of the registers of voters and of the annual, quarterly and revised lists of voters or any other lists required by this Act or 'Rules or regulations in connection with maintenance of the registers or with the conduct of any election;
(b) the procedure to be followed in the preparation of the registers of voters and the preparation of the annual, quarterly and revised lists of elections;

(c) the determination for the purposes of the registration of voters, of the place of ordinary residence of any person;

(d) the adaptation of any register of voters to any alteration of polling divisions and particularly with respect to cases where any alteration of polling divisions is made between the publication of any list prepared under this Act and the coming into force of any register of voters prepared under Part II;

(e) the issue of identification cards in place of those which are lost, defaced or destroyed and the fees to be paid therefor;

(f) any other matter incidental to the provision of this Act relating to the registration of voters;

(g) the remuneration and travelling allowance to be paid to any electoral officer;

(h) the duties of and the records to be kept by election officers;

(i) the provision of such additional assistance as may be necessary for the counting of the votes;

(j) the variation of the forms set out in this Act and the prescribing of additional forms, and

(k) generally for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(2) The incidental matters referred to in clause (f) of sub-section (3) shall be taken to include the time and manner of preparation and publication and the form of, and the making and determination of claims and objections.

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing sub-sections, regulations made with respect to the matters therein mentioned may contain provisions—

(a) authorising a registering officer or enumerator to require any person to give information required for the purpose of his registration duties;

(b) laying down a time-table for the preparation of registers and other matters, and providing that notices and other documents received by the registering officer out of time may be or shall be disregarded either altogether or for the purpose of a particular register or election;

(c) as to the evidence of citizenship, age, residence or nationality which may be required in connection with the registration of any person;

(d) as to the evidence which shall or may be required or deemed sufficient or conclusive to show that a person is subject to any physical incapacity and as to its probable duration;

(e) as to the cases in which a claim or objection may be determined by the registering officer by himself and as to the right of a person aggrieved in any such case to make written representation to him or to the Supervisor of Elections;

(f) authorising the Supervisor of Elections, or a registering officer to require the evidence of any person at a hearing before him to be given an oath and to administer oaths for the purpose;

(g) requiring copies of the annual, quarterly or revised lists of voters or registers of voters and other documents or parts thereof to be available for inspection by the public at any such places as may be specified;

(h) authorising or requiring a registering officer to supply to such class or category of persons as may be specified, copies of the annual, quarterly or revised lists of voters or registers of voters.
and other documents or parts thereof, whether free of charge or on payment of any fee

(i) as to the steps to be taken to ensure the secrecy of the voting and the safe custody (before and after the count) of the ballot-papers returned and other documents;

(j) any other matter incidental or supplementary to the aforementioned purposes.

(4) All regulations made under this Act shall be subject to a negative resolution of the House of Assembly.

67. The Chief Justice may make such rules dealing generally with all matters of court procedures and matters incidental thereto in respect thereof arising out of the provisions of this Act and for the carrying out of all such matters as he may think fit.

68. All expenses properly incurred by and all remuneration and travelling allowances payable to election officers shall be paid out of monies voted for the purpose by the House of Assembly.

69. Any person who wilfully mutilates, tears down, destroys or obscures any list or notice published in accordance with the provisions of this Act or who makes any alteration in any copy of a list or notice so published shall be guilty of an offence and liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding three months.

70. Nothing contained in this Act shall be deemed to affect the constitution, term or continuance of the House of Assembly and the same shall continue until dissolved in due course in accordance with the provisions of the constitution.

71. (1) The House of Assembly Election Act, 1951 (No. 13 of 1951), the House of Assembly (contracts with Government) (Disqualification) Act, 1960 (No. 17 of 1960) and the House of Assembly (Registration of Electors) Act, 1969 (No. 4 of 1969) shall stand repealed on the commencement of this Act save as regards things done or omitted to be done prior to such enactment.
(2) Notwithstanding the repeal of the enactments specified in sub-section (1) the House of Assembly (Election Petitions) Rules 1967 S.R.O. No. 26 of 1967, shall remain in force and continue to apply with necessary modifications in relation to any matter arising under this Act until the rules are replaced or modified or amended by the Chief Justice in exercise of the powers under this Act.

HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY ELECTION RULES, 1982

PART I

Provisions as to time

1. In computing any period of time for the purposes of these Rules, a Sunday, Christmas Day, Good Friday, other public holiday or day appointed for public thanksgiving or mourning shall be disregarded and any such day shall not be treated as a day for the purpose of any proceedings up to the completion of the poll nor shall the returning officer be obliged to proceed with the counting of the votes thereon.

PART II

Stages Common to Contested and Uncontested Elections

2. On the Governor-General issuing a writ, the Supervisor of Elections shall give notice thereof and of the day and place fixed for the nomination of candidates, by publication in the Gazette and one or more newspapers at least ten clear days before the day fixed for such nominations; and the returning officer shall give further notice of the issue of such writ and of the time and place fixed for the nomination of candidates by causing notices in the form set out as Form 1 in the Appendix to be posted at such places in the district, as he may deem necessary.

3. (1) On the day and at the place fixed for the nomination of candidates, the returning officer shall attend at the place fixed therefor between the hours of 9 a.m. and 1 p.m.

(ii) must be nominated in writing by not less than six registered voters of the constituency for which he seeks to be elected and the nomination paper shall give the electoral number of each person subscribing to it; must consent in writing to such nomination, in the form set out as Form 2 in the Appendix:

Provided that no candidate shall be deemed not to have been validly nominated by reason only of the fact that subsequent to nomination day any person by whom his nomination paper was signed is struck off the list of voters for the relevant constituency:
Provided further that no person who is an election officer shall be eligible for nomination as a candidate for election as a member of the House of Assembly.

(3) The nomination paper shall state the full names place of residence, occupation, description of the candidate and the surname shall be placed first in the list of his name.

(4) No person shall subscribe to more than one nomination paper at the same election and, if he does, his signature shall be inoperative on any paper other than the one first delivered.

Provided that no person shall be prevented from subscribing to a nomination paper only because he has subscribed to the nomination of a candidate who has died or withdrawn before delivery of the first mentioned paper.

4. (1) The returning officer shall fix the place in the constituency at which nomination papers are to be delivered to him and where objections to the said nominations are to be made.

(2) No nomination paper shall be accepted after 12 noon on the day of the nomination and no objection to a nomination paper shall be made after 1 p.m. that day.

5. Every candidate shall at the time of his nomination deliver or cause to be delivered to the returning officer a statutory declaration of his qualifications made and subscribed by such candidate or, if the candidate is absent from the State on nomination day, by his duly authorised agent, in the form set out as Form 3 in the Appendix; and if such statutory declaration is not delivered as aforesaid the nomination of such candidate shall be deemed to be void.

6. A person shall not be validly nominated unless the sum of five hundred dollars is deposited in cash by him or on his behalf with the returning officer at the place and within the time fixed for the delivery of nomination papers.
7. (1) Where a nomination paper and the Statutory declaration are delivered and a deposit is made in accordance with these Rules, the candidate shall be deemed to stand nominated unless and until the returning officer decides that the nomination is invalid or proof is given to the satisfaction of the returning officer of the candidate's death or the candidate's withdrawal.

(2) The returning officer shall be entitled to hold a nomination paper invalid on any of the following grounds only—

(a) that the particulars of the candidate or person subscribing the paper are not as required by law;

(b) that the paper is not subscribed as so required.

(3) The returning officer shall give his decision on any objection to a nomination paper as soon as practicable after it is made.

(4) Where the returning officer decides that a nomination paper is invalid, he shall endorse and sign on the paper the fact and the reasons for his decision.

(5) The decision of the returning officer that a nomination paper is valid or invalid shall be final and shall not be questioned in any proceedings whatsoever: save in so far as it may be done in an election petition filed in accordance with law before the competent authority.

8. (1) The returning officer shall as soon as practicable after the expiration of the time for making objections prepare and publish a statement showing the persons who have been and stand nominated and any other persons who have been nominated, with the reason why they no longer stand nominated.

(2) The statement shall show the names, addresses and descriptions of the persons nominated as given in their nomination papers, together with the names of the persons subscribing those papers.

(3) The statement shall show the persons standing nominated arranged alphabetically in the order of their surnames, and if there are two or more of them with the same surnames, of their other names,
9. If at the expiration of four hours from the time appointed there shall be only one candidate duly nominated, the returning officer shall forthwith publicly declare such candidate to be elected, and shall immediately thereafter certify by endorsement on the writ of election in the form set out as Form 4 in the Appendix the return of such candidate and shall return the writ so endorsed to the Supervisor of Elections for transmission to the Governor-General within the time for that purpose specified therein.

10. If the number of persons shown by the statement of persons nominated exceeds the number of vacancies, a poll shall be taken in accordance with Part III of the Rules.

11. (1) Any candidate duly nominated may, not less than seven clear days before the day fixed for taking the poll, withdraw from his candidature by giving notice to the effect signed by him, to the returning officer, provided that on such withdrawal there remains not less than one duly nominated candidate.

(2) If any such candidate withdraws from his candidature in accordance with subsection (1) of this section, the returning officer shall forthwith give public notice of such withdrawal in the manner mentioned in the preceding subrule and if on such withdrawal there remains only one duly nominated candidate, the returning officer shall forthwith declare such candidate to have been elected and shall immediately thereafter certify by endorsement on the writ of election the return of such candidate in the Form 5 in the Appendix and shall return the writ so endorsed to the Supervisor of Elections for transmission to the Governor-General within the time specified therein for that purpose.

PART III
Contested Elections
General

12. (1) If there shall be more than one candidate duly nominated a poll of voters shall be taken, and in such case the returning officer shall adjourn the election to the day specified in the writ, and a poll be taken on such day in the manner hereinafter provided.
(2) The returning officer shall, as soon as possible after adjourning the election, give notice of the day and time on which and the address of the polling stations at which the poll will be taken and of the names of the candidates nominated for election and of the place where and the day and time when the number of voters given to the several candidates will be finally counted by publication thereof in one or more newspapers; and by causing notices to be posted at such places in the district as he may deem necessary in the form set out as Form 6 in the Appendix.

13. (1) The votes at the poll shall be given by ballot, the result shall be ascertained by counting the votes given to each candidate and the candidate to whom the majority of votes have been given shall be declared to have been elected.

(2) The poll shall commence at 7.00 a.m. and kept open until 5.00 p.m. and no longer.

14. (1) The ballot of every voter shall consist of a ballot paper and the names of the persons shown in the statement of persons validly nominated as candidates, and no other person shall be entitled to have his name inserted in the ballot paper.

(2) A ballot paper shall be in the Form set out in the Appendix and shall be printed in accordance with the directions therein and shall —

(a) contain the names alphabetically arranged according to surnames and numbered accordingly and other particulars of the candidates as shown in the statement of the persons nominated. Opposite to the name of each candidate there shall be printed one of the symbols as are specified in Form 7A which shall be allotted by the Supervisor of Elections;

(b) be capable of being folded;

(c) have a space provided on the face of the ballot for the initials of the Presiding Officer;
(d) have attached a counterfoil and a stub, and a line or perforations between the ballot and the counterfoil and between the counterfoil and stub, the whole as in the form set out as Form 7 in the Appendix.

15. (1) Every ballot paper shall be marked with an official mark, which shall be either stamped or perforated.

(2) The official mark shall be kept secret and an interval of not less than seven years shall intervene between the use of the same official mark at elections in the same polling division.

16. No person who has voted at the election shall, in any legal proceedings to question the election or return, be required to state for whom he voted.

17. (1) The returning officer may use, free of charge for the purpose of taking the poll —

(a) a room in a school to which this rule applies;

(b) a room the expense of maintaining which is payable out of the Consolidated Fund.

(2) This rule applies to a school in receipt of a grant or in respect to which a grant is made out of the Consolidated Fund.

18. (1) The returning officer shall in the statement of persons nominated include a notice of the poll, stating the day on which and hour during which the poll will be taken.

(2) The returning officer shall also give public notice (which may be combined with the statement of persons nominated) of the situation and the description of voters entitled to vote there.

19. (1) If, after publication of the statement of persons nominated and before the poll is commenced, proof is given to the satisfaction of the returning officer of the death of one of the persons shown as standing nominated the returning officer shall countermand notice of the poll, and all proceedings with reference to the election shall be concluded afresh in all respects as if the writ had been received on the day on which proof was given to the returning officer of the death:
No. 7.
Representation of the People 1982.

Provided that no fresh nomination shall be necessary in the case of a person shown in the statement as standing nominated.

(2) Where because of the death of a candidate proceedings at an election are commenced afresh under this rule, then the returning officer shall fix —

(a) a new date for the nomination of candidates being a date not more than fourteen days after the date on which proof was given to him of the death of the person shown as standing nominated; and

(b) a new date for the making of the poll which date shall be not less than fourteen days or more than twenty-one days from the date fixed for the nomination of candidates.

20. (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall provide a sufficient number of polling stations and shall allot the voters to the polling stations in such manner as he thinks most convenient.

(2) One or more polling stations may be provided in the same room.

(3) The returning officer shall provide each polling station with such number of compartments as may be necessary in which the voters can mark their votes screened from observation.

21. (1) The returning officer may, if he thinks fit, preside at a polling station and the provisions of these rules relating to a presiding officer shall apply to a returning officer so presiding with the necessary modifications as to things to be done by him as the returning officer or as the presiding officer as the case may be.

(2) A presiding officer may do, by clerks appointed to assist him, any act (including the asking of questions) which he is required or authorised by these rules to do at a polling station except order the arrest, exclusion or removal of any person from the polling station.
22. (1) The returning officer shall provide each presiding officer with such number of ballot boxes and ballot papers as in the opinion of the returning officer may be necessary, together with a statement showing the number of ballot papers supplied with their serial numbers.

(2) Every ballot box shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be put therein but cannot be withdrawn therefrom, without the box being unlocked.

(3) The returning officer shall provide each polling station with—

(a) materials to enable voters to mark the ballot papers;

(b) instruments for stamping thereon the official mark;

(c) copies of the registers of voters or such part thereof as contains the names of the voters allotted to the station; and

(d) the necessary envelopes and such other forms as may be authorised by the Supervisor of Elections.

(4) A notice in the Form 8 set out in the Appendix giving directions for the guidance of the voters exhibiting outside every polling station and in every compartment of every polling station.

(5) For the purposes of these Rules "register" includes a supplementary register.

23. (1) Each candidate may appoint one agent to attend the preliminary and final counting of the votes by the presiding officer and the returning officer. Such appointment shall be in writing in the form set out as Form 9 in the Appendix and each agent, on being admitted to the poll or to the final counting of the votes, shall make the declaration of secrecy set out in Form 10 of the Appendix.

(2) Agents of candidates may, with the permission of the presiding officer, absent themselves from and return to the polling station at any time before one hour previous to the close of the poll.
(3) Where by these Rules any act or thing is required or authorised to be done in the presence of the polling or counting agents, the non-attendance of any agent at the time and place appointed for the purpose, shall not by itself invalidate the act or thing done.

(4) If an agent dies or becomes incapable of acting, the candidate may appoint another agent in his place, and shall forthwith give to the returning officer notice in writing in the form set out in Form 9 of the Appendix, of the name and address of the agent appointed.

Form 9.

Declararion of secrecy.

21. (1) Before the opening of the poll a declaration of secrecy in the form set out in sub-rule (4) or in a form to the like effect, shall be made by—

(a) the Supervisor of Elections;

(b) the returning officer;

(c) every officer or clerk authorised to attend at a polling station or at the counting of the votes;

(d) every candidate attending at a polling station or at the counting of the votes.

(e) every candidate's wife or husband attending at the counting of the votes;

(f) every polling agent and counting agent; and

(g) every person permitted by the returning officer to attend at the counting of the votes.

(2) Notwithstanding paragraph (1) the following persons, namely:—

(a) a candidate;

(b) a candidate's wife or husband attending by virtue of the rule authorising the candidate's wife or husband to attend as such; and

(c) a person permitted by the returning officer to attend though not entitled to do so,

need not make the declaration before the opening of the poll but shall make it before he or she is permitted to attend the counting and an election officer, a polling or counting agent appointed after the opening of the poll shall make the declaration before acting as an election officer or as an agent aforesaid.
(3) The returning officer shall make the declaration in the presence of a Justice of the Peace and any other person shall make the declaration in the presence either of a Justice of the peace or of the returning officer.

(4) The declaration shall be as follows.—

"I solemnly promise to abide by law and declare and undertake that I will not do anything forbidden by or under this Act or by any other law."

(5) The declaration shall be signed by the person making the declaration and by the person before whom it is made.

25. The presiding officer shall regulate the number of voters to be admitted to the polling station at the same time and shall exclude all other persons except—

(a) the candidates;
(b) the polling agents appointed to attend at the polling station;

Provided that no candidate shall be in the same polling station with his polling agent at the same time for more than fifteen consecutive minutes;
(c) the clerks appointed to attend at the polling station;
(d) the constables on duty;
(e) the companions of blind or incapacitated voters; and

(f) the Supervisor of Elections, Deputy Supervisor of Elections, the returning officer and election clerk:

Provided that all such excepted persons shall have duly made a declaration of secrecy pursuant to rule 23 (1).

26. (1) It shall be the duty of the presiding officer to keep order at the polling station of which he is the presiding officer—
(2) If a person misconducts himself in a polling station or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer, he may immediately, by order of the presiding officer, be removed from the polling station by a constable in or near that station or by any other person authorised in writing by the returning officer to remove him and the person so removed shall not, without the permission of the presiding officer, enter the polling station again that day.

(3) Any person so removed may, if charged with the commission in the polling station of an offence, be dealt with as a person taken into custody by a constable for an offence without a warrant.

(4) The powers conferred by this rule shall not be exercised so as to prevent a voter who is otherwise entitled to vote at a polling station from having an opportunity of voting at that station.

27. (1) Immediately before the commencement of the poll, the presiding officer shall show the ballot box empty to such persons, if any, as are present in the polling station, so that they may see that it is empty, and shall then lock it and shall place it in full view of all present for the receipt of ballot papers, and keep it so locked until the close of the polls.

(2) Immediately after the ballot box is so locked, the presiding officer shall call upon the voters to vote.

(3) The presiding officer shall facilitate and regulate the admittance of every voter into the polling station, and shall see that they are not impeded or molested at or about the polling station.

28. (1) The presiding officer at the time any person applies for a ballot paper but not afterwards—

(a) may, and if required by a candidate or his polling agent shall, put to that person the following questions or either of them—

(i) are you the person registered in the register of voters for this election (reading the whole entry from the register);
(ii) have you already voted here or elsewhere at this election; and

(b) shall request that person to produce his identification card.

(2) Subject to paragraph (3) a ballot paper shall not be issued to any person who—

(a) does not give satisfactory answer to the questions put to him under paragraph (1) (a) or any of them; or

(b) does not produce his identification card when required so to do under paragraph (1) (b).

(3) A ballot paper shall be issued to any person whose name appear on the register or a supplementary register in use for the election and who is unable to produce an identification card, if he satisfies the presiding officer—

(a) that he has not been issued with an identification card; or

(b) that he has been issued with an identification card which is lost or destroyed.

(4) Save as provided in this rule, no inquiry shall be made by the presiding officer as to the right of any person to vote.

(5) For the purposes of this rule "identification card" means an identification card issued under section 19 of the Act. and every identification card shall—

(i) be in laminated plastic setting out the name, sex, date of birth and registration number of the voter;

(ii) have the signature or mark of the voter;

(iii) have the photograph of the voter affixed to it; and

(iv) bear the signature of the issuing officer.

29. (1) If at the time a person applies for a ballot paper for the purpose of voting in person, or after he has applied for a ballot paper for that purpose and before he has left the polling station, a candidate or his agent declares to the presiding officer that he has reasonable cause to believe that the applicant has committed an offence of personation and undertakes to substantiate the charge in a court of law, the presiding officer may order a constable to arrest the applicant, and the order of the presiding officer shall be sufficient authority for the constable so to do.
(2) A person against whom a declaration is made under this rule shall not because of this be prevented from voting.

(3) A person arrested under the provisions of this rule shall be dealt with as a person taken into custody by a constable for an offence without a warrant.

30. (1) A ballot paper shall be delivered to a voter who applies therefor, and immediately before delivery:

(a) the ballot paper shall be marked with the official mark, either stamped or perforated, and the initials of the presiding officer;

(b) the number, name and description of the voter as stated in the copy of the register of voters shall be called out;

(c) the number of the voter shall be marked on the counterfoil; and

(d) a mark shall be placed in the register of voters against the number of the voter to denote that a ballot paper has been received but without showing the particular ballot paper which has been received.

(2) The voter, on receiving the ballot paper, shall forthwith proceed into one of the compartments in the polling station and there secretly mark his ballot paper by marking with the black lead pencil provided a cross within the space containing the name and symbol of the candidate for whom he intends to vote. He shall then fold the ballot paper so that the initials of the presiding officer and the official mark can be seen without opening it, and hand the paper to the presiding officer, who shall without unfolding it, ascertain by examination of the initials the numbers and the official mark appearing thereon that it is the same paper as that delivered to the voter and if it is the same, he shall forthwith in full view of the voter and all others present remove the counterfoil and deposit the ballot paper in the ballot box.

(3) The voter shall vote without undue delay, and shall leave the polling station as soon as the presiding officer has put his ballot paper into the ballot box.

31. (1) The presiding officer shall, on the application
(a) a voter who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in a manner directed by these Rules; or

(b) a voter who declares orally that he is unable to read;

vote for the voter by marking on a ballot paper in the manner directed by the voter and the ballot paper shall then be placed in the ballot box.

(2) The name and number on the register of voters of every voter whose vote is marked in pursuance of the rule, and the reason why it is so marked, shall be entered on a list in these Rules referred to as "the list of votes marked by the presiding officer".

32: (1) If a voter makes an application to the presiding officer to be allowed on the ground of blindness or other physical cause to vote with the assistance of another person by whom he is accompanied in these Rules referred to as "the companion" the presiding officer shall require the voter to declare orally whether he is so incapacitated by his blindness or otherwise as to be unable to vote without assistance.

(2) If the presiding officer is satisfied that the voter is so incapacitated and is also satisfied by a written declaration made by the companion in these Rules referred to as "the declaration made by the companion of a blind or incapacitated voter" that the companion is a qualified person within the meaning of this rule and has not previously assisted more than one blind or incapacitated person to vote at the election, the presiding officer shall grant the application, and thereupon anything which is by these Rules required to be done to, or by the said voter in connection with, the giving of his vote may be done to, or with assistance of, the companion.

(3) For the purposes of this Rule, a person shall be qualified to assist a blind or incapacitated voter to vote, if that person is either—

(a) a person who is entitled to vote as a voter at the election, or

(b) the father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, son or daughter of the blind or incapacitated voter and has attained the age of eighteen years.
(4) The name and number in the register of voters of the voter whose vote is given in accordance with this rule and the name and address of the companion shall be entered on a list in these Rules referred to as "the list of blind or incapacitated voters assisted by companion".

(5) The declaration made by the companion shall—

(a) be in the Form 11 set out in the Appendix;

(b) be made before the presiding officer at the time when the voter applies to vote with the assistance of a companion; and

(c) forthwith be given to the presiding officer who shall attest and retain it.

(6) No fee or other payment shall be charged in respect of the declaration.

33. (1) Where any person whose name appears upon the official list for any polling station is appointed as presiding officer or poll clerk for some other polling station in the same constituency, the returning officer shall transfer the name of the presiding officer or poll clerk, as the case may be, to the list for the polling station of which such person is appointed as the presiding officer or poll clerk.

(2) The returning officer shall give notice in writing to every candidate in his constituency of any transfer made under the last preceding sub-section and to the presiding officer of the polling station at which the person whose name is so transferred would have been entitled to vote but for the provisions of the next succeeding rule.

34. (1) Every person whose name is transferred, in accordance with the provisions of the last preceding Rule, from any official list shall vote, if he votes at all, in the polling station of which he is appointed presiding officer or poll clerk, as the case may be.

(2) Every presiding officer who issues to any person whose name has been transferred from any official list to any other official list any ballot paper at any polling station other than the polling station to which he has been transferred, shall be liable, on summary conviction, to a fine of two hundred and fifty dollars or to imprisonment for a period not exceeding three months.

35. (1) Subject to all other provisions under these Rules as to proof of qualification as a voter and as to the administration of oaths, if a person representing himself to be a particular voter applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such person, he shall be entitled to receive ballot paper and to vote after taking the oath of identity in form set out as Form 12 in the Appendix, and otherwise establishing his identity to the satisfaction of the presiding officer:

(2) In such a case, the presiding officer shall put on the ballot paper his initials and official mark together with a number corresponding to the consecutive number on the register of voters allotted to the voter, and the poll clerk shall enter in the register of voters—

(a) the name of such voter;
(b) a note of his having voted on a second ballot paper issued under the same name.
(c) the fact of the oath of identity having been required and taken, and the fact of any other oaths being so required or taken;
(d) any objections made on behalf of the candidates.

36. A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may on delivering it to the presiding officer and proving to his satisfaction the fact of the inadvertence, obtain another ballot paper in the place of the ballot paper so delivered in these Rules referred to as “a spoilt ballot paper” and the spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately cancelled.

37. (1) Where the proceedings at any polling station are interrupted or obstructed by riot or violence, the presiding officer shall adjourn the proceedings until the following day and shall immediately give notice to the returning officer.
(2) Where the poll is adjourned at any polling station —

(a) the hours of polling on the day to which it is adjourned shall be the same as for the original day; and

(b) references in the Act to the close of the poll shall be construed accordingly.

Procedure after poll.

38. Forthwith upon the close of the poll, in the presence and in full view of the poll clerk and the candidates or their agents, and if the candidates or their agents are absent, then in the presence of such as are present, and of at least two voters if none of the candidates is represented, the presiding officer shall proceed in the following order.

(a) count the number of votes against whose names appear on the register of voters as having voted and make an entry thereof on the line immediately below the last name on the register, thus: "the number of voters who voted at this election in this polling station is ____________________" (stating the number), and affix his signature thereof.

(b) count the spoilt ballot papers, if any, place them in the special envelope supplied for that purpose and indicate thereon the number of such spoilt ballot papers and seal it up;

(c) count the unused ballot papers, place them with all the stubs of all unused ballot papers in the special envelope supplied for that purpose and indicate thereon the number of such unused ballot papers;

(d) check the number of ballot papers supplied by the returning officer against the number of spoilt ballot papers, if any, the number of unused ballot papers and the number of voters whose names appear in the register as having voted, in order to ascertain that all ballot papers are accounted for;

(e) open the ballot box and empty its contents upon a table;
(f) record and count the number of votes given to each candidate on the tally sheets supplied, giving full opportunity to those present to examine each ballot paper. The poll clerk and not less than two witnesses shall be supplied with tally sheets upon which they may keep their own score as each vote is called out by the presiding officer.

39. (1) Any ballot paper—

(a) which does not bear the official mark; or

(b) on which votes are given for more than one candidate; or

(c) on which anything is written or marked by which the voter can be identified; or shall subject to this rule, be void and not counted.

(2) A ballot paper on which the vote is marked—

(a) elsewhere than in the proper place; or

(b) otherwise than by means of a cross; or

(c) by more than one mark, shall not because of this be deemed to be void if an intention that the vote be for one or other of the candidates clearly appears, and the way the paper is marked does not of itself identify the voter and it is not shown that he can be identified thereby.

(3) The presiding officer shall endorse the word "rejected" on any ballot paper which under the rule is not to be counted, and shall add to the endorsement the words "rejection objected to" if an objection is made by a counting agent to his decision.

(4) The presiding officer shall draw up a statement showing the number of ballot papers rejected under the several heads of—
No. 7. Representation of the People 1982.

(a) want of official mark;
(b) voting for more than one candidate;
(c) writing or mark by which voter could be identified; and
(d) unmarked or wholly void for uncertainty, and any counting agent may copy the statement.

40. (1) If, in the course of counting the votes any ballot paper is found with the counterfoil still attached thereto, the presiding officer shall (carefully concealing the numbers thereon from all persons present and without examining them himself) remove such counterfoil. He shall not reject the ballot paper merely by reason of his former failure to remove the counterfoil.

(2) If, in the course of counting the votes the presiding officer discovers that he has omitted to affix his initials to any ballot paper, as provided by subparagraph (a) of sub-rule (1) of Rule 30, and as indicated in the form set out as Form 7 in the Appendix to these Rules, he shall, in the presence of the poll clerk and the agents, if any present, of the candidates, affix his initials to such ballot papers and shall count such ballot paper as if it had been initialled by him in the first place, provided that he is satisfied that the ballot paper is one that has been supplied by him and that such an omission has really been made, and also that every ballot paper supplied to him by the returning officer has been accounted for, as provided by rule 38.

(3) Nothing in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2) shall relieve the presiding officer from any penalty to which he may have become liable by reason of his having placed any writing, number or mark, other than his initials, on any ballot paper, or of his failure to remove the counterfoil at the time of the casting of the vote to which it relates or to affix his initials to any ballot paper before handing it to any voter.

(4) The presiding officer shall keep a record, on the special form printed in the register of votes, of every objection made by any candidate, or his agent or any voter present, to any ballot paper found in the ballot box, and shall decide every question arising out of the objection. The decision of the presiding officer shall be final, subject to reversal on the final count by the returning officer or on petition questioning the election or the return; and every such objection shall be numbered and a corresponding number placed on the back of the ballot paper and initialled by the presiding officer.

(5) All the ballot papers not rejected by the presiding officer shall be counted and a list kept of the number of votes given to each candidate and of the number of rejected ballot papers. The ballot papers which respectively indicate the votes given for each candidate shall be put into separate envelopes; and rejected ballot papers into a special envelope and all such envelopes shall be endorsed so as to indicate their contents, and shall be sealed by the presiding officer, and by such agents or witnesses present as may desire to seal them or to sign their names thereon in addition or instead.

(6) The presiding officer and the poll clerk, immediately after the completion of the counting of the votes, shall take and subscribe respectively the oaths in the forms set out as Forms 13 and 14 in the Appendix.

(7) The presiding officer shall make the necessary number of copies of the statement of the poll in the form set out as Form 15 in the Appendix, one copy to be retained by the presiding officer, and one copy for the returning officer which shall be enclosed in a special envelope supplied for the purpose, which envelope he shall seal and deliver personally or transmit to the returning officer.

(8) The register of voters, the several envelopes containing the ballot papers—unused, spoilt, rejected or counted for each candidate and the packet of counterfoils which should remain intact—each lot in its proper envelope, the envelope containing the register of voters and other documents used at the poll shall then be placed in the large envelope supplied for the purpose, and this envelope shall then be sealed and placed in the ballot box. The ballot box shall then be locked and sealed with the seal of the presiding officer and forthwith transmitted or delivered to the returning officer. The returning officer may specially appoint one or more persons for the purpose of collecting the ballot boxes from a given number of polling stations and such person or persons shall, on delivering the ballot boxes to the returning officer, take the oath in the form set out as Form 16 in the Appendix.
(9) The presiding officer shall prepare the preliminary statement of the polling in the form set out as Form 15 in the Appendix and the polling station account furnished to him in blank by the returning officer, having first caused it to be filled in and signed by the officials of his polling station entitled to fees, and by the landlord thereof, if any.

(10) The Presiding Officer shall then transmit to the returning officer—

(a) the ballot box;
(b) the envelope containing the key thereof;
(c) the preliminary statement of the poll; and
(d) the polling station account.

in such manner as the Supervisor of Elections may direct.

(11) If any presiding officer shall omit to enclose within the ballot box, and in the proper envelopes provided for that purpose any of the documents mentioned in this rule, he shall, in addition to any other punishment to which he may be liable, forfeit all right, in such manner as the Supervisor of Elections may direct, to payment for his services as such officer.

41. (1) The returning officer, upon receipt by him of each of the ballot boxes, shall take every precaution for its safekeeping and for preventing any person other than himself and his election clerk from having access thereto, sealing it under his own seal so that it cannot be opened without the seal being broken but without effacing or covering any other seals thereto affixed.

(2) After all the ballot boxes have been received, they shall be opened by the returning officer at the place, date and time specified in the notice referred to in sub rule (2) of rule 12 for the final count of the votes, and in the presence of such of the candidates or their agents as are present and the returning officer shall—

(a) count the votes contained therein cast for each candidate (allowing the candidates or their representatives to see such votes) and determine whether any of the votes so cast should be rejected;
(b) count the votes rejected by the presiding officer (allowing the candidates or their representatives to see such votes) and determine whether any of such votes should be regarded as having been validly cast for any, and if so, for which candidate;

(c) add up the total number of votes (including any votes rejected by the presiding officer but which he thinks should not have been so rejected) cast for each candidate;

(d) make and sign any necessary amendments to the statement of the poll.

(3) The provisions of sub-rule (4) of rule 40 shall apply to the returning officer as they apply to the presiding officer except that for references in sub-rule to "the presiding officer" there shall be substituted references to "the returning officer" and that the words "on the final count by the returning officer or" shall be deemed to have been omitted there from.

(4) The provisions of sub-rule (7) of rule 40 shall apply to the returning officer as they apply to the presiding officer except—

(a) that the words "returning officer" shall be deemed to be substituted for the words "presiding officer"; and

(b) that the documents referred to in that sub-rule shall be replaced in the envelopes from which they were removed by the returning officer and such envelopes shall be fastened by a sheet of paper being pasted over the opening thereof.

(5) If at the final count of the votes none of the candidates or their representatives are present, it shall be the duty of the returning officer to secure the presence of at least two voters who shall remain in attendance until such final count of the votes has been completed.

(6) A candidate may, if present when the count or re-count of the votes is completed, require the returning officer to have the votes re-counted or again re-counted but the returning officer may refuse to do so if, in his opinion, the request is unreasonable.
(7) No step shall be taken on the completion of the count or any re-count of the votes until the candidates at the completion thereof have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this rule.

(8) The candidate who, on such final count of the votes, is found to have secured the largest number of votes, shall then be declared elected in writing and a copy of such declaration shall be forthwith delivered to each candidate or his agent, if present at the final count of the votes, or, if any candidate is neither present nor represented thereat, shall be forthwith transmitted to such candidate by registered post.

42. Where, after such final count of the votes is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates and the addition of a vote would entitle any of those candidates to be declared elected, a new writ shall be issued in respect of that constituency and all proceedings for an election of a member for that constituency shall commence afresh.

43. (1) If the ballot boxes are not returned to the returning officer by the time specified in the notice referred to in paragraph (2) of rule 12 the returning officer shall adjourn the proceedings to a subsequent day, which shall not be more than a week later than polling day.

(2) In case the statement of the poll cannot be found and the number of votes polled for the several candidates cannot be ascertained, or if, for any other cause, the returning officer cannot, at the day and hour appointed by him for that purpose ascertain the exact number of votes given for each candidate he may thereupon adjourn to a future day and hour the final count of the votes given for each candidate, not being more than seventy-two hours after the time specified in the notice referred to in paragraph (2) of rule 12.

(3) At the time to which the proceedings are adjourned in accordance with the provisions of sub-rule (2) of this rule, the returning officer shall ascertain by such evidence as he is able to obtain the total number of votes cast for each candidate and shall declare elected the candidate appearing to him to have the largest number of votes.
PART IV

Final Proceedings in Contested Elections:

44. In a contested election, when the result of the poll has been ascertained, the returning officer shall immediately—

(a) declare to be elected the candidate to whom the majority of votes have been given;

(b) return the name to the Supervisor for transmission to the Governor-General; and

(c) give public notice of his name and of the total number of votes given for each candidate.

45. (1) The returning officer shall return as soon as practicable the name of the member elected by endorsing on the writ a certificate in the Form 17 set out in the Appendix and by delivering himself or forwarding by his agents the writ duly endorsed to the Supervisor of Elections for transmission to the Governor-General.

(2) Every law as to the effect of, or manner of dealing with, the return of a member to serve in the House of Assembly, shall apply to the certificate.

(3) The returning officer shall forward to each of the candidates a duplicate or copy of the return to the writ made by him.

(4) Any premature return made shall be deemed not to have reached the Supervisor of Elections until the same should have reached him in due course, and he shall, if circumstances so require, send back such return and any or all election documents connected therewith to the returning officer for completion or correction.
(5) The Supervisor of Elections shall, on receiving the return of any member elected to serve in the House of Assembly transmit the writ with the return endorsed thereon to the Governor-General within the time for the purpose specified therein.

(6) The Supervisor of Elections shall, immediately after each general election, cause to be printed a report giving by polling divisions, the number of votes polled for each candidate, the number of rejected ballots, the number of names on the lists of voters, together with any other information that he may deem fit to include and shall also, at the end of each year, cause to be printed a similar report on the by-elections held during the year.

46. If any returning officer wilfully delays, neglects or refuses duly to return any person who ought to be returned to serve in the House of Assembly for any constituency, and if it has been determined on the hearing of an election petition respecting the election for such constituency that such person was entitled to have been returned, the returning officer who has so wilfully, delayed, neglected or refused duly to make such return of his election shall, if the High Court so decides, pay to the person aggrieved the sum of two thousand five hundred dollars and costs in addition to all damages sustained.

47. (1) The Supervisor of Elections shall from the return made through him enter the name of the member returned in a book to be kept at the Electoral Office and shall immediately give notice in the Gazette of the name of the candidates so elected and in the order in which it was received.

(2) The book shall be open to public inspection at reasonable times and any person may, on payment of a fee of two dollars take copies from the book.

48. (1) Subject to this rule the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the result of the election is declared.

(2) If a candidate is not shown as standing nominated in the statement of person nominated or if the poll is countermanded because of his death, the deposit shall be returned as soon as practicable after the publication of the statement or after his death, as the case may be.
(3) Subject to sub-rule (2) the deposit of a candidate shall be forfeited if a poll is taken and after the count of the votes by the returning officer (including any re-count) is completed, the candidate has not been elected and is found not to have polled more than fifteen percent of the total number of votes polled and, for the purposes of this sub-rule the number of votes polled shall be the number of ballot papers counted, other than ballot papers endorsed by the returning officer with the word "rejected".

PART V

Disposal of Documents

49. Forthwith upon making the return to the writ in accordance with the provisions of rule 45 of these Rules the returning officer shall cause the ballot boxes used thereat, with their locks and keys, to be transmitted or delivered to the Supervisor of Elections.

50. (1) The returning officer shall then himself or by his agents not later than the seventh day after the final count deliver to the Supervisor of Elections the following documents—

(a) the packets of ballot papers in his possession;

(b) the ballot paper accounts and the statements of rejected ballot papers and the result of the verification of the ballot paper accounts;

(c) the lists of blind and incapacitated voters assisted by companions, the list of votes marked by the presiding officer and the statements relating thereto, and the declaration made by the companions of blind voters;

(d) the packets of counterfoils;

(e) the packets containing marked copies of the registers;

(f) the packets containing transfer certificates of presiding officers and poll clerks; and
(g) all other documents used for the election, endorsing on each packet a description of its contents, the date of the election to which they relate and the name of the constituency for which the election was held.

(2) The Supervisor of Elections shall on receiving the documents give a receipt to the person delivering them, and shall register them in a book kept by him for the purpose of specifying the date and time of receipt and shall deposit them in the Electoral Office.

(3) Any receipt to be given for the documents shall show the date and time of their receipt.

51. The Supervisor of Elections shall keep the election documents referred to in Rule 50 in safe custody and shall allow no person to have access to them:

Provided that if an election petition has been presented questioning the validity of any election or return the said Supervisor shall, on the order of a Judge of the High Court, deliver to the Registrar of the High Court the documents relating to the election that is in dispute:

Provided also that after the expiration of twelve months from the day of any election it shall be lawful for the Supervisor of Elections to cause the said documents used at such election to be burnt.

52. (1) An order—

(a) for the inspection or production of any rejected ballot papers including ballot papers rejected in part in the custody of the Supervisor of Elections; or

(b) for the opening of a sealed packet of the counterfoils or for the inspection of any counted ballot papers in his custody, may be made by the Court if it is satisfied by evidence on oath that the order is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution for an offence in relation to ballot papers, or for the purpose of an election petition lodged or to be lodged in accordance with the law thereunto applicable.

(2) An order under this rule may be made subject to such conditions as to time, place and mode of inspection, production or opening of such documents as the Court thinks fit and the Court may direct the Registrar to retain intact for such period as may be specified in the order, any of the documents referred to in sub-rule (1):

Provided that in making and carrying into effect an order for opening of a packet of counterfoils or for the inspection of counted ballot papers, care shall be taken to see that the way in which the vote of any particular voter has been given shall not be disclosed until it has been proved that his vote was given and that the vote has been declared by the Court to be invalid.

(3) Any power given under this rule may be exercised by the Judge otherwise than in open Court.

(4) Where an order is made for the production by the Registrar of any document in his possession relating to any specified election, the production by him or his agent of the document in such manner as may be directed by that order shall be conclusive evidence that the document relates to the specified election and any endorsement on any packet of ballot papers so produced shall be prima facie evidence that the ballot papers are what they are stated to be by the endorsement.

(5) The production from proper custody of a ballot paper purporting to have been used at any election, and of a counterfoil marked with the same thereon in writing, shall be prima facie evidence that the voter whose vote was given by that ballot paper was the person who at the time of the election had affixed to his name in the register of voters with the same number as the number written on the counterfoil.

(6) Subject to this rule no person shall be allowed to inspect any rejected or counted ballot paper in the possession of the Registrar or to open any sealed packets of counterfoils.
53. (1) The Registrar shall retain for one year all documents relating to an election delivered to him under these Rules by the Supervisor of Elections, and then, unless otherwise directed by order of the Court, shall cause them to be destroyed.

(2) The said documents, except ballot papers and counterfoils shall be open to public inspection at such time and subject to such conditions as the Registrar may direct.

(3) The Registrar shall on request, supply copies of or extracts from the documents open to public inspection on payment of such fees and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed.

54. These rules shall be called House of Assembly Rules, 1982.

RULE 22 (4) OF THE HOUSE OF ASSEMBLY ELECTION RULES

DIRECTIONS FOR THE GUIDANCE OF VOTERS IN VOTING

1. Each voter may vote only at one polling station and for only one candidate.

2. The voter should see that the ballot paper before it is handed to him is stamped with the official mark and bears the initials of the presiding officer.

3. The voter will go into one of the compartments and with a black lead pencil there provided place a cross within the space containing the name of the candidate for whom he votes, thus X.

4. The voter shall then fold the ballot paper so that the initials of the presiding officer the official mark and the numbers on the counterfoil can be seen and the counterfoil detached without opening the ballot paper, he shall then return the ballot paper so folded to the presiding officer who shall in full view of those present, including the voter, remove the counterfoil, and place the ballot paper in the ballot box. The voter shall then forthwith quit the polling station.

5. If a voter inadvertently spoils a ballot paper he may return it to the Presiding Officer who on being satisfied of the fact will give him another.

6. If a voter votes for more than one candidate or places any mark on the ballot paper by which he can afterwards be identified, his vote will be void and will not be counted.

7. If the voter fraudulently takes a ballot paper out of a polling station or fraudulently puts into the ballot box any paper, other than the one given to him by the officer, he will be liable on summary conviction to imprisonment for a term not exceeding six months.

In the following form of ballot paper given for illustration the candidates are Conrad D. Babulah, Francis Ocean and Emmanuel Ronson, and the voter has marked his ballot paper in favour of Francis Ocean.
