IFES 2019 Democracy Awards Dinner

Overview

The International Foundation for Electoral Systems' (IFES) Charles T. Manatt Democracy Award recognizes the exceptional work of individuals who demonstrate unwavering commitment to freedom and democracy. IFES presents the Democracy Award annually to three individuals: a Republican, a Democrat and a member of the international community.

The recipients of the Democracy Award embody the character and spirit of former U.S. Ambassador and IFES Board of Directors chairman Charles T. Manatt. Manatt served as Chairman of IFES' Board of Directors from 1993 to 1999 and was a distinct leader, dedicated to spreading democracy around the world and nurturing the next generation of political leaders.

The three Democracy Awards are presented in a single ceremony each year. This year, IFES will honor Swedish Minister for Foreign Affairs Margot Wallström, former United States Secretary of State Madeleine K. Albright (D) and former U.S. National Security Adviser Stephen J. Hadley (R). Recipients receive the award at IFES' annual dinner, typically held around the International Day of Democracy, September 15. The 2019 Democracy Awards dinner will be held on Monday, September 30, at the Washington Marriott Georgetown, in Washington, D.C.

IFES Innovation Fund

The proceeds from the event will benefit the IFES Innovation Fund, an endowment that supports original projects that address pressing issues in democratic development today. IFES awards funds to outstanding proposals from staff that support local programs focused on promoting gender equality, adequate use of technology, electoral security, human rights and inclusion of persons with disabilities.

About IFES

IFES supports citizens' rights to participate in free and fair elections. Since 1987, IFES has worked in over 145 countries – from developing democracies, to mature democracies. Our independent expertise strengthens electoral systems and builds local capacity to deliver sustainable solutions.

As the global leader in democracy promotion, IFES advances good governance and democratic rights by providing technical assistance to election officials, empowering the underrepresented to participate in the political process and applying field-based research to improve the electoral cycle.
