BALLOT MEASURE NO. 1

Constitutional Amendment LEGISLATIVE ANNULMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE REGULATIONS

1983 Legislative Resolve No. 15 (SCS HJR 5 [Jud])

This amendment of the Alaska Constitution would permit the legislature to annul executive-branch regulations by passing a resolution. The annulment would become effective 30 days after passage by the legislature, unless the resolution sets a different date. The resolution must have three readings in each house on separate days, except that it may be advanced from second to third reading on the same day by a three-fourths vote of the house considering it. The resolution must receive approval of a majority of the membership of each house. The yeas and nays on final passage must be entered in the legislative journals. The resolution is not subject to veto by the governor, and it is not subject to repeal by referendum.

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 2

Constitutional Amendment LIMITING LENGTH OF REGULAR LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS SCS CS HJR 2

This amendment to article II, section 8, of the Alaska Constitution adds a limit on the length of regular sessions of the state legislature. The legislature must adjourn no later than 120 consecutive calendar days after the date it convenes in regular session each year. If at least two-thirds of each house of the legislature votes to extend the regular session, the session may be extended once for up to 10 calendar days. The legislature will adopt deadlines for scheduling session work in keeping with these provisions.

A vote "FOR" adopts the amendment	FOR	+
A vote "AGAINST" rejects the amendment	AGAINST	+

BALLOT MEASURE NO. 3

Initiative No. 83-02 REDUCING GOVERNMENT REGULATION OF TRANSPORTATION

This initiative would repeal statutes which establish the Alaska Transportation Commission and the statutes which empower the commission to regulate activities of air carriers and motor freight operators. The initiative requires that persons who carry passengers or freight for hire provide insurance or other adequate security to assure financial responsibility for their activities. The initiative restricts the power of municipalities to regulate persons who carry passengers or freight. It also directs the governor to seek repeal of federal statutes (the Jones Act) which require the use of United States vessels to ship goods between United States ports.
