GET READY!

- * Will you be eighteen years or over by June month-end 1991?

Then you owe it to yourself and country to get registered to vote at the next General and Regional Elections.

- * Officials from the Elections Office – known as DIVISIONAL REGISTRARS – are now paying visits to every home in your area. They are coming to ensure that YOUR NAME and other particulars appear on the Preliminary List of Electors. That means the Preliminary Voters' List.

- * These Certified Officials are now making their first round of visits to register those who qualify to vote at Guyana's next elections.

- * They are doing their best to catch you at home. Please do your best to assist them.

- * If you're 18 years and over, YOU HAVE A RIGHT TO VOTE FOR THE LEADER AND PARTY OF YOUR CHOICE. YOU CAN ONLY VOTE IF AND WHEN YOUR NAME IS ON THE VOTERS' LIST.

SO BE AT HOME – or make other necessary arrangements in your area.
