
[No. 2 of 1991 .
THE ELECTORAL ACT, 1991

Arrangement of Sections

PARTY
Preliminary

Section

1. Short title and application
2. Interpretation

PART II
Hate
Registration and Voting in ${ }^{-3}$, 3 not Elections
3. Qualifications for registration of voters
4. Disqualification from registration of voters
5. Registration in a constituency
6. Qualification for voting
7. Disqualification from voting

PART III.
Presidential Elections
8 Elections to office of President
9. Nomination of Presidential candidate

PART IV
National Assembly Elections"
10. Additional disqualifications for election to National Assembly
11. Election fee

PART V
Electoral Commission and Regulation of Elections'
12. Electoral Commission
13. Independence of electoral commission
14. Supervision by commission
15. Appointment, renumeration and functions of election officers
16. Power of commission to require information and issue instructions
17. Regulatory power of commission

PART VI
Election Petitions in Respect of Parliamentary Elections
18. Avoiding of elections
19. Who may present election Petitions

THE ELECTORAL ACT, 1991.

Abrangambent of Sections

PART I
Prehamanary

Section

1. Short title and application

2. Interpretation

PART II
Registration and Voting in Direct Elections
3. Qualifications for registration of voters
4. Disqualification from registration of voters
5. Registration in a constituency
6. Qualification for voting
7. Disqualification from voting

PART III
Presidential Elections
8 Elections to office of President

9. Nomination of Presidential candidate

PART IV
National Assembly Elections
10. Additional disqualifications for election to National Assembly
11. Election fee

PART V

Electoral Commission and.Requlation of Elections

12. Electoral Commission
13. Independence of electoral commission
14. Supervision by commission
15. Appointment, renumeration and functions of election officers
16. Power of commission to require information and issue instructions
17. Regulatory power of commission

PART VI
Election Petitions in Respect of Parliamentary Elections
18. Avoiding of elections
19. Who may present election Petitions

Section

20. Relief which may be claimed in election petition
21. Form and procedure for presentation of election petitions
22. Duty of registrar to make out list of election petitions
23. Rules of practice and procedure, security for costs
24. Withdrawal of election petitions
25. Substitution of new petitioners
26. Abstement of election petitions
27. Trial of election petitions
28. Provisions as to witnesses
29. Conclusion of trial election petition
30. Provisions as to costs

PART VII
Othrir Questions Relating to Parliament
31. Applications re-members and officers of Parliament
32. Effect of determination

PART VIII

Miscelianeous and Repeats and Transtional
33. Exemption from stamp duty
34. When incapacity may be removed
35. No person required to state how he voted
36. Evidence as to holding of election
37. Validation of certain documents
38. Repeals and saving
39. Transitional Electoral commission
40. Transitional registers of voters

GOVERNMENT OF ZAMBIA

ACT

No. 2 of 1991

Date of Assent: 24th August, 1991
An Act to make provision relating to elections to the office of President; to elections to the National Assembly empower the Electoral Commission to make regulations providing for the registration of voters and for the manner of conducting elections; to provide for offences and penalties in connection with elections; to make provision with respect to election petitions and the hearing and determination of applications relating to Parliament; to repeal the Electoral Act; 1973 and to provide for matters incidental to or connected with the foregoing.
[30th August, 1991
ENACTED by the Parliament of Zambia.

Enactment

Short titlo
Laterprotetion
"(candidate" means any person nominsted as á candidate for election;
"Commission" means an Electoral Commission established under article seventy-six of the Constitution;
"constituency" means any of the constituencies into which Zambis is divided under article seventy-seven of the Constitution;
"the Constitution" means the Constitution set out in the Schedule to the Constitution of Zambia Act, 1991.
"currupt practice" means any offence against this Act which is declared under this Act to be a currupt practice;
"costs" includes charges and expenses;
"direct election" means an election to the office of Pre* sident. or an election for a member of the Nationa Assembly;
"Director of Elections" means the parson for the time being holding or acting in the public office of Director of Elections;
"election" means, a direct election and cognate expressions shall be construed accordingly;
"election officer" has the meaning assigned thereto in subsection (6) of section fifiecen;
"election petition" means an election petition referred to in section eighleen;
"high judicial office" has the meaning assigned to it in the Constratution;
"illegal practice" means any offence against this Act which is declared under this Act to be an illegal practice;
"member" means an elected member of the National Assembly;
"petitioner" means, in relation to an eloction petition, any person referred to in section nineteen who signs and presents such election petition under section

Cap. 105 twenty, and includes any person subatituted for a potitioner under section twenty-five or section troenty-six.-
"political party" means an organisation registered under the Societies Act the objects of which include any political activity or the sponsoring of candidates for election to the office of President or as a member of the National Assembly;
"register of voters" means a register of voters for any constituency, or part of a constituency, prepared and maintained, or deemed to be prepared and maintained under this Act;
"registered" means registered in a repister of roters under this Act, and "registration" shall be construed ac:0rdingly;
"Registrar" means the Registrar of the High Court; "respondent" has the meaning assigned thereto in subsection (t) of section tuenty-me;
"returning officer" in relation to the election of a President, means the returning officer specified in.article forty-one of the Constitution;

$\therefore$ "voter": means a person who is entitled to vote at the relevanit ölection.

(2) For the purposes of this Act, the expression "election expenses'.' means expenses incurred, whether bsfore, during or after an election. on account of or in respect of the conduct or management of such election by or on behalf of a candidate:

Provided that the following expenses shall not be decmed to be eloction expenses:
(a) any moneys expended or expenses incurred by any association or group of persons or by any person in the general interests of a political party or organisation or its candidates generally, not being moneys expended or expenses incurred directly in the particular interests of any particular candidate or expenditure incurred by a political party with the consent of a candidate and apportioned to such candidate under this Act; or
(b) any moneys expended or expenses incurred by any political party or urganisation in the printing, publication or distribution of the official organ of that political party or organisation; or
(c) any election fee.

PART II

Registration and Voting in Direct elections

3. Subject to the provision of section four. every person shall be qualified for registration as a roter in direct elections who-
(a) is a citizen of Zambia; and
(b) has attained the age of eighteen years.
4. (1) No person shall be qualified for registration as a roter in direct elections, and no person shall be rezistered as such a voter, who-
(a) is under a declaration of allegiance to some country other than Zambia;
(b) under any law in force in Zambia. is adjudzed or otherwise declared to be of unsound mind. or is detained
$\therefore$-...under the Criminal Procedure Code during the pleasure of the Président;

Qualification for registration of voters

Disqualifica. :lons irom -ecistration ot voters
(c) is under sentance of death imposed on him by. any court in Zambia, or a sentance of imprisonmpmet (by whatever name called) imposed on him by such a court or substituted by competant authority for fome other sentence imposed on him by such-a court; of.

Cap. 454
(d) is not in possession of a national registration card. issued to him under the Nationsl Registration Act:
(2) In this section, the reference to a sentence of imprisonment shall be construed as not including a sentence of impirison:ment the execution of which is suspended or a. sentance of imprisonment imposed in default of payment of a fine.

Registration in a Constituency

Qualifics. tions for voting
disqualifica. tions from voting
5. A person qualified for rezistration as. a voter ahall, on application in accordance with regulations, made by the Commission, be registered as a voter in the registar of voters for a constituency in which he is ordinarily reaidant.
6. (1) Subject to the provisions of this section and of seotion seven, every person who is registered in a register of voters for a constituency shall be entitled to vote at a direct election held in that constituency.
(2) Every person shall, whenever he wishes to vato at a direct election, identify himself to an election officer in such manner as may be prescribed, and no person shall be entitled to vote more than once in the same such election.
(3) For the avoidance of doubt it is hereby declared that where an election to which this Act applies is held at the same time and place as any other such election, and whathar or not the same ballot paper is authorised by the Commission for use in more than one such election, each such election romainis a separate election.
7. No person ahall be entitled to vote at a direct olection who-
(a) has been convicted of any corrupt practice or illegal practice within a period of five years preceding. that election;
(b) has been reported guilty of any corrupt practice or illegal practice by the High Court apon the trial of an election petition under this Act within a period of five years preceding that election; or
(c) at the date of the election is in lawful custody or if his freedom of movement is restricted under any law in force in Zambia.

PART III

Prisiderntilal Elections

8. The election to the office of President shall be held in :ovity'toristituency in Zambia.
9. (1) A candidate for election as President shall deliver 'hisi noministion paper together with the prescribed election 'free'sude thèstatutory declaration reforred to in article thirty'twoo' of the Constitation to the returning officer for such election on'suchrday; at such time and at such place as may be determinted by the Commission.
(2) The nomination paper shall be signed by not less than two hundred registered votere.

PART IV

National Assrmbly Eluctions

10. In addition to the persons disqualified by article sixtythree of the Constitution-
(a) an election officer shall not be qualified for election as a member of the National Assembly;
(b) any person who is convicted of any corrupt practice or illegal practice or who is reported guilty of any corrupt practice or illegal practice by the Hign Court upon the trial of an election petition under this Act shall not be qualified for election as a member of the National Assembly for a period of five years from the date of such conviction or of such report, as the case may be.
11. The election fee for candidates for election to the National Assembly shall be such fee as may be prescribed under this Act.

PART V

Electoral Commtssion and Regithation of Elections

12. (1) An Electoral Commission established under article eight of the Constitution shall consist of a Chairman and two other members, who shall be a ppointed by the President.

Provided that, where an Electoral Commission is established solely for the purpose of a by-election for a member of the National Assembly, the Electoral Commission may consist of a single Commissicner who may exercise all the priwers of the Electoral Commission relating to the direction and supervision of that election other than the power to make or alter regulations.

Election to office of President

Nomina tion of Prenido. ntial candidates

Additional disqualifications for election to National Ansombly

Electoral
Commisaion
(2) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as Chairman of a Commission or as a Commissioner-
(a) unless he holds or has held high judicial uffice;
(b) if he is a member of, ur nominated as a candidate-for election to, either House of Parliament.
(3) If, after the appointment of a Commission and before the Commission stands dissulved, the office of Chairman or any member of the Commission falls racant or the holder of the office becomes unable for any reuson to discharge his funotions as a member of the Commission, the President may appoint another person qualified for appointment to be the Chairman or a member of the Commission, as the case may be.
(4) A Commission established for the purposes of article eighty-one of the Constitution shall stand dissolved upon such date as the President may determine, and a Ccmmission established for any other purpose shall stand dissolved on such date (not being earlicr, in the case of a Commission established upon a dissolution of Parliament, then the date upon: which Parliament first sits after that dissolution) es the President may determine.

Independo-
nee of Electoral
Commussion

Supervision by Commission

Appoint-

 ment. renumera. tion and functions of election officers13. In the exerciso of its functions under the Constitution, a Commission shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.
14. The registration of roters and the conduct of every election shail be subject wo che direction and supervision of the Commission.
15. (1) In respect of any eiection, the Conmission shall have power to appoint fur any constituency or prorince such election officers as it may deem necessary for the purposes of such election, and anv election r,fficer may exercise his functions in respect of the whole or part of a constituency or province or in respect of more than one constatuency as prescribed by the Commissiun.
(2) In respect if an election, an election officer may, subject to the general or special directions of the Commission. appoint any fit person to assist him in the exercise of his functions uide: this Act, and may, at any ume, revoke:such appointment.
(3) Every election officer shall, before exercising any of the functions of his uffice take and subşcribe such oath, or make such affirmation in lieu thereof, as the Commission may prescribe.
(4) The Commission may, at any time, revoke the appenintment of an election officer.
(5) Every eleotion officer shall be paid such remuneration and allowances in respect of his duties as the Commission may determine.
(6) In this section "election officer" means a person appointed by the Commission to be-
(a) a registration officer;
(b) an assistant registration officer;
(c) an eleotoral officer;
(d) a returning officer;
(e) a presiding officer;
(f) a polling assistant;
(g) a counting assistant;
and includes any person appointed to assist an election officer under subsection (2); and, where functions are conferred on the Director of Eléctions under this Act in respect of any eleotion, includes the Director of Elections.
16. The Commission may-
(a) require from any election officer such information and returns as it may consider necessary;
(b) subject to the provisions of this Act, issue instructions to any election officar in connection with his functions under this Act;
(c) issue instructions to any candidate in an election in respect of the use of motor vehicles by or on behalf of such candidate during the day on which such election is to be held.
17. (1) Subject to the provisions of the Constitution and of this Act, the Commission may, by statutory instrument, muke regulations providing for the registration of voters for the purposes of elections and for the procedure and manner of conducting elections; separate regulations may be made in respect of each category or elections.
(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1), the Commission may, by statutory instrument, make reguiations providing for all or any of the following matters-
(a) the division of constituencies into polling districta;
(b) the establishment of polling stations in polling districts;
(c) the registration of voters;
(d) the preparation of, and the form of, registers to be used in the registration of voters;
(e) the manner of escertaining whether persons applying for registration as voters are qualified for registration or for their inclusion in a register for a partioular constituency:

Power of

 Commission to require information and ianne instruotions
- Rogulatory

 powers of Comminsion(f) the making and determinstion of appeals, claims and objections with respect to the registration of voters;
(g) the correction, amendment and certification of registers of voters;
( $h$ ) the circumstances in which the name of any person may be deleted from a register of votars, the transfer of the names of persons from the register of voters or one polling district to that of another polling district and the restoration of names of registars of voters;
(i) the nomination of candidates for any election and the manner of establishing and recording that a candidate at a direct election for the National Assembly is the authorised candidate of a political party;
( $j$ ) the making and determination of appeals against the rejection of nominations by a returning officer;
( $k$ ) the publication of the names of candidates whose nominations are accepted;
( $l$ ) the payment of election fees by candidates, and the circumstances in which such fees are to be returned;
( $m$ ) the use of symbols at an election;
$(n)$ the appointment of, and the duties of, election agents and polling agents;
(o) the equipment and facilities to be provided at polling. stations;
( $p$ ) the persons who may be admitted to polling stations;
(q) the manner and procedure of voting at an election;
$(r)$ the manner of ascertaining the identity of persons wishing to vote at elections and whether such persons are qualified to vote;
(s) the manner in which persons who are blind, or otherwise incepacitated, may vote;
( $t$ ) voting by persons employed on election duties on the day of an election;
(u) the maintenance of secrecy at elections;
(v) the postponement of, and the adjournment and extension of, time for a poll in case of riot or oyen violence at an election;
$(w)$ the administering of oaths or affirmations by election officers in respect of such matters as may be prescribed;
$(x)$ the procedure to be followed at the conclusion of a poll in an election;
(y) the procedure for counting rotes in an election, and the circumstances in which votes in an election may be rejected by a returning officer as invalid;
(z) for the purpose of declaring any candidate duly elected, the procedure to be followed where there is an

- equality of votes between candidates in an election for members of the National Assembly.
(aa) the procedure to be followed where only one person is duly nominated for election to the office of President, or in a constituency for election to the National Assembly;
(bb) the declaration, notification and publication of the results of an election;
(cc) the custody and disposal of nomination papers, ballot papers, records, documents or other things relating to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections;
(dd) election expenses and the return of election expenses;
(ee) the notification and publication of any causal vacancy in the elected membership of the National Assembly and the fixing of a date for an election to fill such vacancy;
(ff) the fixing of a date for an election of a President or an election following a dissolution of the National Assembly;
(gg) the forms and records to be used for any of the purposes of this Act;
( $h \mathrm{~h}$ ) any matter to be prescribed by or under this Act.
(3) Before making any regulations which make any separate or distinct provision in respect of the functions of the returning officer for the election of a President, the Electoral Commission shall consult the returning officer.
(4) Regulations under this section shall not be affected by the dissolution of the Commission by which they are made but shall remain valid and in force, subject to any amendment or revocation by a subsequent Commission.
(5) Regulations under this section may provide in respect of any contravention thereof that the offender shail be liable to a fine not exceeding twenty thousand kwacha or to a term of imprisonment not exceeding two years or to both:
(6) No proseoution for an offence against this Act shall be commenced after the iapse of one year from the date on which the offence is alleged to have been committed.

PART VI  Election Petitions in Respect of Parliamentary Elections

18. (1) No election of a candidate as a member of the National Assembly shall be questioned except by an election

Avoiọance cĩ elections petition presented under this Part.
(2) The election of a candidate as a member of the National Assembly shall be void on any of the following grounds which is proved to the satisfaction of the High Court upon the trial of an election petition, that is to say-
(a) that by reason of any corrupt practice or illegal practice committed in connection with the election or by reason of other misconduct, the majority of voters in a constituenoy were or may have been prevented from electing the candidate in that constituenoy whom they preferred; or
(b) subject to the provisions of subsection (4), that there has been a non-compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to the conduct of elections, and it appears to the High Court that the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in such provisions and that such non-compliance affected the resalt of the election;
(c) that any corrupt practice or illegal practice was committed in connection with the election by or with the knowledge and consent or approval of the candidate or of his election agent or of his polling agents;
(d) that the candidate was at the time of his election a person not qualified or a person disqualified for election.
(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (2), where, upon the trial of an election petition, the High Court finds that any corrupt practice or illegal practice has been committed by or with the knowledge and consent or approval of any agent of the candidate whose election is the subject of such election petition, and the High Court further finds that such candidate has proved that-
(a) no corrapt practice or illegal practice was commitiod by the candidate himself or by his election ejegs; or with the knowledge and consent or approval oi sucis. candidate or his election agent; and
(3) such candidate and his olection agent toois all =9:soבsble means to provent the commission of corrupt practice or ililezal practice es suci eisction; and
(c) in all other reapects the election was free from any corrupt practice or illegal practice on the part of such candidate or his election agent:
tican tice 五igh Court sibail not, ju raason jaily of sucin corrud. Yizotice or illegai practice. Fisclars that siection of such candifiate werg void.
 or omission oy an election oincer in óreaci of his official duty in connection with an election if it appears to the High Court that the election was so conduoted as to bo cubotantially in accordance with the provisions of this Act, and that such act or omission did not affect the result of that election.
19. An election petition may be presented to the High Court by one or more of the following persons-
(a) a person who lawfully voted or had a right to vote at the election to which the election petition relates;
(b) a person claiming to have had a right to be nominated as a candidate or elected at the election to which the election petition relates;
(c) a person claiming to have been a candidate at the election to which the election petition relates;
(d) the Attorney-General.
20. (1) Any of the following reliefs may be claimed in an election petition-
(a) a declaration that the election was void;
(b) a declaration that any candidate was duly elected.
(2) In addition to the foregoing reliefs, a petitioner may apply to the High Court upon the trial of an election petition for a scrutiny to be carried out by the High Court in such manner as the Court may determine.
(3) On a scrutiny at the trial of an election petition, the following votes only shall be held invalid-
(a) the vote of any person whose name was not on the register of voters assigned to the polling station at which the vote was cast or who was not authorised to vote at such polling station under this Act;
(b) the vote of any person whose vote was procured $\mathrm{k}_{7}$ iny corrupt pratice or illegal vraciice;
(9) She rote of any person rizo cominived or procared tice commission of personation at tie oiection to rinicn ihe eigction petition reiates, contury উo tine provisions 3 this inct;
(i) ine rote of any ferson proved to ذ35e voted mose than once at the eiection to whica tiee eiection paition relates;
(a) the rote of any person who was disqualifen Erom roting at the election to whick the election forition reiates.

- (4) 工化 this section "scrutiny" means an encuiry as to the raidity of tine votes cast, and inciudes the determination of the numjer of valid votes cast for each candidate in the election in respect of which the application for a ecrutiny is mode.

Who may present olection petition:

Rolief which may be claimed in election petition

Farm and procedure for proveatation of electioniv potitions:
 ahall contatngtureh mattars as may ber prescribed by. rules made by the Ghief Justice.
A: (2) Preacontrion of an aleation potition to the High Court shall be made by lodging it with the Begistrar in accordance

(3) Every deotion petition shall be signed by the petitioner or by bll the potitionars if more than onti, and shall be presented of the eleotion to which it relates is duly dociared.
(4) Notwithending the provisions of sabeoction (3), when the election' of" any person (hareinafter referred to as "the respondent ") is queetioned upon ani ellegation of a corrapt practice or an. illogal practice, the election petition may be

(a) at ary time before the expiry of twenty-one days aftegithe day on which ther retruning officer recaives the return of the election expenses of the respondent;
(b) if the oloction petition specifically, alleges a payment of money or some other aot to have been made or done, gince the day reforred, to in paragraph (a) by the reepondent or his election agent, or with the privity of the respondent or of his election agent in parsuance or in fartherance of the corrupt practice or illegal practice alleged in the election, at any time within thirty days after the date of payment or other act.
(5). Where' an alection petition is' presanted under this section, thei Registrar shall in writing foform the Speaker of the National Assembly and the Commission of such presentation.

Duty of Regiotrar to mako out list of election potitions
22. (1) Subject to the provisions of subsection (2), the Registrar, shall make out a list of all election petitions presented under this Act, plecing them on such list in the order in which they are presented, and he shall keep at his office a copy of such list which shall be open for inspection by any person making application for inspection thereof.
(2) Every election petition shall, unless the High Court orders otherwise, be tried in the order in which it stands on the list made out by the Registrer under subse: on (1), but where more election petitions than one are preeented in reepect of the same election, such election petitions shall be bracketed together and shall be dealt with as one petition, standing, unless the High Court orders otherwise, in such list in the place where the last of such election petitions woald have stood if it had bean the only election petition presented in respect of that-oleotion.
23. (1) Subject to the provisions of this Act the Chief Justice may make ralea regulating generally the practice and procedure of the High Court with reapect to the presentation and trisl of election petitions, including rules as to the fine within which any requirement of such rules is to be complied with and as to the costs of and incidental to the presentation and trial of election petitions and as to the fees to be charged in respect of proceedings therein, and generally in regard to any other matter relating thereto as the Chief Justice may deem necessary or desirsble.
(2) After the presentation of an election petition, every petitioner thereto shall give such security for costs, not exceeding in amount the sum of ten thousand kwacha, as the High Court may order, and such security shall be given within such time and in such manner and form as the Chief Justice may prescribe by rules under this section or, in the absence of such rules, as the High Court may order.
(3) Where, after the presentation of an election petition, no security for costs is given as required by or under this section, no further proceedings shall be had on that election petition.
24. (1) A petitioner shall not withdraw an election petition without the leave of the High Court.
(2) No application for leave to withdraw an election petition shall be made until notice of intention to withdraw such election petition has been given in such manner as the Chief Justice may prescribed.
(3) Where an election petition is presented by two or more petitioners, an application to withdraw such election petition shall not be made except with the consent of all the petitioners thereto.
(4) The High Court may, upon an application for leave to withdraw en election petition, make such order as to costs as it may think just.
25. (1) Upon the hearing of an application under section twenty-four for leave to withdraw an election petition. any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which that election petition relates may, not withstanding the provisions of section twenty apply to the High Court to be substituted for the petitioner so applying to withdraw, and the High Court may, if it grants leave to such petitioner to withdraw, order that such person (hereinafter referred to as "the substituted petitioner") be substituted for such petitioner.
(2) Subject to the provisions of this section, the substituted petitioner shall, as nearly as may be, stand in the same position, and be subject to the same liabilities, under this Act as-the petitioner for whöm he is substituted (hereinafter referred to as "the original petitioner").

Rules of practice and procedure security for costs

Withdrawal of election potitions
(3) Where the High Court makes an order under subsection (1), it may direct that the security for oosts given by the original petitioner ahall remain as security for any costs csused thereafter by the substituted petitioner upon the trial of the election petition, and may direct that, to the extent of the amount of suah security, the original petitioner shall be liable to pay the costs of the substituted petitioner.
(4) Unless the High Court gives directions as in subsection (3), subsections (1) and (2) of section twenty-three shall apply to the substituted petitioner as they apply in relation to a petitioner presenting an election petition.

Abatement of eloction petitions

Trial of ciection pentions
26. (1) If a sole petitioner or the survivor of several petitioners dies, then subjeot to the provisions of this section, no further proceedings shall be had upon the election petition.
(2) The desth of a petitioner shall not affect his liability for the payment of costs previously incurred.
(3) On the abatement of an election petition under subsection (1), any person who might have been a petitioner in respect of the election to which that election petition relates may, notwithstanding section twenty-one, apply to the High Court to be substituted as a petitioner in place of the deceased petitioner and the High Court may, if it thinks fit, order that such person be substituted accordingly.
(4) Where the High Court makes an order under this section for the substitution of a person in place of a deceased petitioner such person shall, as nearly as may be, stand in the same position, and be subject to the same liabilities, under this Act as the deceased petitioner would have been but for this death, and sabsections (1) and (2) of section twenty-three shail apply to such person as they apply in relation to a petitioner presenting an election petition.
27. (1) An election petition shall be tried by the High rourt in open court.
(2) The High Court may adjourn the trial of an election netition from time to time and from place to place.
(3) Subject to the provisions of this Act, the High Courr may, in respect of the trial of an election petition exercise such powers within its civil jurisdiction as it may deem appropriate.
(4) On the trial of an election petition, a verbatim record of all evidence given oraily in such trial shall be taken, and transcript of such record shall, at the conclusion of the proceedings, be delivered to the Commission by the Registrar.
28. (1) On the trial of an election petition, the High Court may- …
(a) order any person who appears to the High Court to have been concerned in the election to attend as a witness at such trial;
(b) examine any witness or any person who is present st such trial although such witness or person is not called ss u witness by any party to the proceedings:

Provided that after such examination by the High Court of such witness or person," such witness or person may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner or the respondent.
(2) A person who is called as a witness at the trial of an election petition shall not be excused from answering anv question relating to any offence connected with an election on the ground that the answer thereto may tend to criminate him, or on the ground of privilege:

Provided that-

(a) a witness who answers to the satisfaction of the High Court every question which he is required to answer under this section, and the answers to which may tend to incriminate him, shall not be liable to prosecution for any offence committed by him in connection with that election and in respect of which he is so examined and such witness shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the haid of the Registrar stating that be is freed and discharged from liability to prosecution for that offence;
(b) an answer by a witness to a question before the High Court under this section shall not, except in the aca: of any criminal proceedi.ggs for giving false evidence in reavect of such evidence. he adnnissable in any proceedings, civil or crimiial. in evidence against him.
(3) Where a person has received a certificate of indemnty under subsection (2), and any legal proceedings are at anv time brought aqainat him for any offence to which such certificate relates, the court having cognizance of the case shall, on proof of the certificate of indemnity, stay such proceodings and mav award to that person such costs as he may have been put to i.a such pruceedi.gs.
(4) All reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending at or appea:ing before the High Court to give evidence ay a witness at the trisl of an election petition shall be allowed ts such person according to the scale of allowances and axpenses appropriate in civil proceedings before the High Churt.

Provisions:

$*$

 to witnomen$$
\begin{aligned}
& \therefore x \\
& \therefore \\ & \therefore \\
& \therefore x
\end{aligned}
$$

Conoturion of trial election petition
29. (1) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, thiof High Court shall determine whether the respondent, or any other and which person, was duly elected, or whether the election to which the election petition relates was void, and the R'égistrar shall as soon; as may be, submit a copy of such detarmination to the Speaker of the National Assembly and to the Commission.
(2) Where the High Court determines under subsection (1) that the respondent was duly elected, such election shall be and remain valid.
(3) Where the High Court determines under subsection (1) that the respondent was not duly elected but that some other person was duly elected, such other person shall be deemed to have been elected accordingly.
(4) Where the High Court determines under subsection (1) that the respondent was not duly elected, and that no other person was duly elected, at the election concerned. the vacancy in the membership of the National Assiembly in respect of which that election was held shall be deemed to continue until duly tilled.
(5) Where a determination under subsection (1) alters the results of an election as previously declared, it shall be the duts of the Commission to publish the results as so altered in the Gazette.
(6) Where it appears to the High Court upon the trial of an election petition that any corrupt practice or illegal practice has been committed by any person in connection with the election to which such election petition relates, the High Court shail, at the conclusion of the proceedings, prenare a report stating-
(a) the evidence given in the proceedings in respect of such corrupt practice or illegal practice;
(b) the names and particulars of any person by whom such corrupt practice or illegal practice was, in the opinion of the Court, committed:

Provided the Court shall not state the name of any person under this paragraph unleas such person has been given an opportunity of eppearing before the Court and of showing cause why his name should not be so stated.
(7) The Registrar shall deliver a copy of every report prepared by the Constitutional Court under subsection (6) to-
(a) the Commission; and
(b) the Director of Public Prosecutions.

Provisions as to costs
30. (1) Subject to the provigions of this section, all costs, charges and expenses of and incidential to the presenfation and trial of an election petition shall be borne in such manner and in Suach proportions as the High Court may order and in particilley, any costs which in the opinion of the High Court have bedid caused by any veicatious conduct or by any frivolous or verations allegations or objections on the part of the petitioner or of the respondent, may be ordered to be paid by the party by whoti such costa have been caused.
(2) Whare, on the trial of an election petition, the High Court detarmines that the respondent was not duly elected and is of the opinion, heving regard to the circumstances, that it woald. be just and reasonable to relieve any party to the election petition from all or a portion of the costs thercof, then-
(a) if the Court finds that the election of the respondent was due to a mistake or improper performance or failure of performance of any function bona fide mado by any eleotion officar; it may, after sufficient notico to the Attorney-General to show cause to the contrary, make such order as to the payment by the State of the costs of the proceedings or a portion thercof, as it may deem proper;
(b) if the Court finds that the election of the rospoudent
.... was due to a mistake or improper performance or failure of performance of any function mala file made by any election officor, it may, after sufficient notice to such officer to show cause to the contrary, make such order as to the payment by such election officer of the costs of the proceedings or a portion thercof, as it may deem proper.
(3) The High Court may, on application made by any person to whom any costs, charges or expenses are payable under this Act, order the same to be paid out of anily deposit made to secure the same, or by any surety who gave a recognizance to secure the same:

Provided tiat notive of such application shall be given, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules of court to the party by or o: whise behalf such deposit was made or for whom such surety gave a recognizance, requiring such party, or such surety and such party, as the case may be, to state, within such time and in such manner as may be so prescribed, whether he revi.its the application.
(4) Where. on the trial of an election petition. any person appears to the High Court to have been guilty of any corrupt practice or illegal practice relating to the election which is the subject of such election petition, the Court may, after, giving that person an opportunity of making a statement to show cause why the order should not be made, order the whole or a purtion of the costs of or incidental to the trial of such election petition to be paid by the said person to such person:or persoris as the Court may determine,
(5) Execution may be levied under any order for payment made by the High Court under this section in the same manner and to the same extent as axecution may be levied under a judgement of the High Court for the payment of money.
(6) Money deposited as security shall, when no longer needed as security for costs, be returned to the persion in whose name it is deposited or to any person entitled to receive the same by order of the High Court, which may be upon motion after notice and proof that all just claims have been satisfied or otherwise sufficiently provided for as the Bigh Court may require.

PART VII
Uther questions hrlating to Parhiamienty

Applications ro members and officera of Parliament

Effoct of decermina. tion
31. (1) Any question which may arise as to whether-
(a) Any person has been validly appointed as a nominated member of the National Assembly;
(b) the seat of an elected member or of a nominated member of the National Assembly, has become vacant, other than a question arising from the election of a candidate as a member of the National Assembly; or
(c) any person has been validly elected as Speaker or Deputy Speaker of the National Astembly or, having been so elected, has vacated the office of Speaker or Deputy Speaker; may be beard and determined by the High Court upon application made by-
(1) anly person to whom the question relate; ; or ( $u$ ) in the cases referred to in paragrapis (a) (b) or (c), any member of the National Assembly; ur
(iii) the Attorney-General.
(2) Any person who makes an application to the High Court under subsection (1) shall have the right to appear and be represented before the High Court.
(3) Subject to any rules of courts, the powers. practice and procedure of the High Court in respect of the trial of election petitions under Part VII shall apply mutatis mutandis to the hearing and determination of such applications.
32. Every determination of the Figh Court under this Pait shall have effert, subject to the provisions of Aiticle sevinty-one of the Constitution, in accordance with the terms ffiereof-

```
    400:: 詯 PART VIII
```

```
    Mmióminanzous astd Rmpmals axd Trangimional
\mathrm{ rommi Ur.: . - %:}
```

33noNGWithstanding anythfig to the contrary contained in any datorialating to stamp:aluty, no stamp duty shall be chargedrapoin any affidsivit, doclaration or oath made-for the purposesiof this Aot..:

34 Whenever person has become subjeot to any incapacity ynder this Act by reason of a conviction or by reason of any doclaration or report of any court, and any witness who gave evidence againits:such person upon the proceeding for such conviotion, declaration or report is convioted of perjury in respeot of that ovidence, suich person may apply to the High:Coirt which, if satisfied that the conviction, declaration or-report, so fary as it concerns that person, was based upon porjured evidencel may ordar thst his incapscity shall from that time ceaset and, thersame ahall cease accordingly:
35. No person who has voted at an election shall in any proceedings, whether brought under this Act or otherwise, be required, to state for whom he has voted.
36. Upon any charge of a corrupt practice or an illegal practice, or any other offence against this Act, alleged to have been committed at or in connection with an election, the certificate of a returning officar that the election mentioned therein was being or had been held shall be sufficient evidence of the fact that such election was being or had been held.
37. No misnomer or any inaccurate description of any person or place in any register, list, nomination paper, notice or other document required for the purposes of this Act shall affect the full operstion of the document with respect to that person or place in any case where the description of the person or place is such as to be commonly understood.
38. The Electoral Act, 1973, is hereby repealed:

Provided that, notwithstanding the repeal of the Electoral Act, 1973, a statutory instrument made thereunder by an Electoral Commission established under the Constitution of Zambia 1973. which is in force immediately before the commencement of this Act shall. so far as it is not incunsistent with the Constitution and this Act, shall continue in force after the commencement of this Act as if it had besn made by a Commisaion under this Act;
and any such statutory instrument shall be construed with such modifications, adaptations. qualifications and exceptions as may be necessary to bring them into conformity with the Constitation and this Act, and such statutory instrument or rules of practice may be amended or revoked by the Commission in exercise of powers conferred under this Act.

Eremption from itamp duty

When

 incapeoity may bo removedNo person required to etato how be votod

Evidenor as to holding of eloction

Validation of cortain documente

Repeala and saving

Transitional Eleotoral Commisaion

39. Notwithstanding the repeal of the Constitution set out in the Schedule to the Constitution of Zambia Act, 1973, the members of an Electoral Commission established under Article seventy-three of that Constitution who hold office immediately before the coming into operation of this Act shall continue to hold office as members of an Electoral Commission hereby deemed to have been established under Article Seventy-six of the Constitution set out in the Schedule to the Constitution of Zambia Act, 1991. and they shall hold such office on the same terms and conditions as apply to the holders of offices referred to in section nine of the Constitution of Zambis Act, 1891.

Transitional registers of voters
40. On the coming into operation of this Act, the Commission shall make such arrangements as are necessary and appropriate for allocating among the constituencies into which Zambia is divided for the purposes of elections to the National Assembly under Article Seventy-seven of the Constitution the polling districts declared under regulation 3 of the Electoral (Registration of Voters) Regulations and in force immediately before the coming into operation of this Act; and the registers of, voters certified for such polling districts which are in force as aforesaid under tho:e Regulations shall be deemed to have heen prepared and maintained under this Act for the constituencies to which those pelling districts are allocated. and shall be used as the registers of voters for the purposes of the first elections to be held after the coming into operation of this Act for an election to the office of President and of members of the National Assembly.

