REQUEST FOR APPLICATIONS (RFA) for Youth with Disabilities Program in Nepal

RFA-21-034

Date: April 5, 2021

1. Request for Application (RFA)

1.5. Purpose

IFES is currently engaged in implementing “Niti Sambad,” with funding from the United States Agency for International Development (USAID). The purpose of this Request for Applications (RFA) is to invite civil society organizations to submit applications to implement a project to build leadership capacity and civic knowledge of youth with disabilities. The objective of this project is to work to ensure youth with disabilities understand the importance of youth participation in political processes and are able to recognize and advocate for inclusive and accessible electoral processes. The RFA provides prospective organizations with the relevant operational and performance requirements.

IFES plans to issue a Subaward from approximately May 2021 to June 2022.

1.5. RFA Schedule

IFES will conduct a competitive process to identify grantees per the tentative timeline below:

Issuance of RFA	April 5, 2021
Questions Due	April 15, 2021; by 17:00 Washington DC (EST)
Response from IFES	April 20, 2021
RFA Closes—All Applications Due	May 3, 2021; by 17:00 Washington DC (EST)
Implementation Period	May 2021 – December 2022

2. General Information

2.5. Background

IFES is an independent, non-governmental organization providing professional support to electoral democracy. IFES supports citizens’ rights to participate in free and fair elections. Our independent expertise strengthens electoral systems and builds local capacity to deliver sustainable solutions.

As the global leader in democracy promotion, we advance good governance and democratic rights by Providing technical assistance to election officials, Empowering the underrepresented to participate in electoral and political processes, and Applying field-based research to improve the electoral cycle.

Since 1987, IFES has worked in over 145 countries – from developing democracies, to mature democracies.

3. Application Preparation Instructions

3.5. Applicant’s Understanding of the RFA

In responding to this RFA, the applicant accepts full responsibility to understand the RFA in its entirety, and in detail, including making any inquiries to IFES as necessary to gain such understanding. IFES reserves the right to disqualify any applicant who demonstrates less than such understanding. Further, IFES reserves the right to determine, at its sole discretion, whether the applicant has demonstrated such understanding. 3.4 Eligibility

Applications are limited to locally registered Civil Society Organizations (CSOs), Non-Governmental Organizations (NGOs), Community Based Organizations (CBOs), Non-Political Party Organizations or other similar not-for-profit institutions.

Individuals and the following organizations are not eligible to access funding:

- Governmental and semi-governmental institutions
- International organizations
- Political parties or organizations affiliated with or engaging in partisan activities
- Organizations running on a for-profit basis

3.5. Application Instructions

All applications should include the following, in order for their application to be considered:

3.5.1. Technical Application

- The Technical Application must include a written application in English describing in detail the applicant's (a) Technical Approach, (b) implementation timeline, and (c) results framework to implement the Program Description as described in Article 4 of this RFA. The evaluation criteria can be found in Article 3.6. Applicants should use the technical narrative template in Attachment A.

3.5.2. Cost Application – Budget & Budget Narrative

- The Budget should reflect costs associated with the technical activities and deliverables. All applicants must use the budget template provided in Attachment B and submit it in Excel format as part of their application. The Budget should be presented in NPR, with applicable taxes/charges clearly identified. Unit costs are required and, in the case of discrepancies between unit costs and total costs, the unit cost will be taken as the reference basis in the evaluation.
- The applicant must agree to keep these costs valid for a minimum of 90 calendar days.
- The Cost Application should include a Budget Narrative that describes each cost element of the Budget (see column H of Attachment B).

3.5.3. A brief outline of the applicant's organization and experience as outlined in Attachment C.

3.5.4. Additional documentation

- A completed pre-award survey as included in Attachment D
- A copy of the organization's most recent final, signed audits/financial statements
- Proof of organization's registration in Nepal
- Any other supporting document that will strengthen the application

3.5. Application Submission

Applicants must send final applications in electronic copy via e-mail, on or prior to May 3, 2021—by no later than 17:00 Washington DC (EST) time —to aabdullah@ifes.org and knaz@ifes.org.

3.5. Criteria for Selection

The evaluation of each response to this RFA will be based on its demonstrated competence, compliance, format, and organization. The purpose of this RFA is to identify those organizations that have the interest, capability, and financial strength to implement the project as described in Article 4 of this RFA.

Demonstrated flexibility to adjust implementation to reflect changing environment
Demonstrated strong past performance in implementing programs of similar scope and complexity

3.5. Selection and Notification

Applicants determined by IFES that possess the capacity to compete for this project will be selected to move into the negotiation phase of this process. Written notification will be sent to these applicants via e-mail. Those applicants not selected for the negotiation phase will also be notified.

4. Scope of Work

The upcoming 2022 elections in Nepal provide an opportunity for voters, many of whom will be voting for the first time, to cast their votes for elected leaders at the local, provincial and federal levels. IFES is seeking to work with one youth organization or youth-focused disabled persons organization (DPO) to build leadership capacity and civil knowledge of youth with disabilities. This project will work to ensure youth with disabilities in Nepal understand the importance of youth participation in political processes and are able to recognize and advocate for inclusive and accessible electoral processes.

IFES is seeking applications from organizations to work with youth with disabilities in Kathmandu and at least 5 other districts in Nepal. Applications should specify the districts in which the program will be implemented and why the districts were selected. While IFES will accept proposals from all types of organizations that meet the qualifications detailed below, preference will be given to organizations led and managed by youth and/or persons with disabilities with an existing presence in the geographic areas proposed.

Civil Society Organizations (CSOs) should submit an application to:

- Work with IFES to develop training curriculum for interactive trainings.
- Recruit and supervise trainers and/or CSO staff who will attend IFES' Kathmandu-based training of trainers (TOT) and implement the trainings at the district-level (note that IFES will pay for the TOT event).
- Identify and recruit youth with disabilities, with a focus on mainstreaming women, LGBTQ+ and other persons from marginalized groups with disabilities. Each district-level training group should consist of no more than 25 participants.
- Implement at least 2 interactive trainings per training group in each target district and in the Kathmandu Valley area, tailored to be accessible and inclusive for persons with different types of disabilities.
- Explore innovative methods of engaging youth with disabilities in political processes using social media, mobile devices, and alternative platforms of information technology.

- Supervise youth program participants who will complete community mobilization, civic education and advocacy activities in program districts, including tracking total number reached through these activities and other success stories.
- Facilitate and supervise placements or internships with the ECN, other government bodies or other organizations for youth with disabilities on topics relating to democracy, governance and elections.
- Develop and disseminate accessible youth civic and voter education materials in partnership with IFES as well as regular social media posts/content.
- Coordinate with IFES and other partners for implementation of events/campaigns for International Youth Day and International Day for Persons with Disabilities.
- Advocate and coordinate with political stakeholders including the Election Commission, Nepal (ECN), elected officials and related government agencies at national, subnational and local levels to strengthen trust, to increase collaboration on inclusive civic and voter education programs while building sustainable partnerships between citizens and government officials.

This scope of work will be conducted in close coordination with IFES Nepal, including consultations and communication with IFES Nepal staff daily. Organizations will also be expected to work closely with other IFES Nepal partners and stakeholders, as required.

Deliverables expected as part of work (NOT FOR INCLUSION WITH APPLICATION)

- Implementation timeline.
- Training curriculum.
- Participant lists for each training.
- Pre- and post-test evaluation for each training.
- Translations of training guides, if used.
- Summary report of each training.
- Final report of the training program.
- Social media posts/content.
- Monitoring and evaluation plan for the program.

All deliverables should be in English, except for translations.

Specific Organizational Requirements:

Preference is for applications from an organization with previous experience conducting activities related to building leadership and advocacy skills of youth with disabilities at the local level in Nepal, working with local government and political parties and developing innovative voter and civic education materials.

Locally registered implementing chapters of international or regional (network) organisations are eligible if they meet the following minimum criteria:

- ✓ The majority of Board members are based in Nepal
- ✓ The organisation is largely financially independent of its international mother body

4.5. Timeline:

Applicants must submit a detailed timeline in their Application showing the time required to implement the services requested. IFES requires all deliverables to be completed no later than June 2022.

4.5. Monitoring & Evaluation

- As part of its due diligence, IFES conducts pre-award surveys on all potential grantees to assess capacity and inform the appropriate grant mechanism. In addition, applicants expected to expend $750,000 or more in U.S. funded awards during their fiscal year must have an audit conducted in accordance with 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart F—Audit Requirements. If Applicable, applicants must ensure that funds are included in the grant budget for an audit.
- IFES will issue the appropriate grant mechanism depending on the nature of the work, the capacity of the grantee, the duration of the grant, and the overall value of the grant.
- IFES will provide continuous mentorship, training and oversight to ensure grant management practices are in line with anti-corruption principles as well as to build capacity of local grantees to fully manage and implement their programs in adherence to donor regulations and with a view towards sustainability.

4.5. Deliverables:

Specific deliverables and reporting will be determined based on the grant activities proposed and negotiated during the negotiation phase.

5. Additional Terms & Conditions

5.5. Non-Disclosure Agreement

IFES reserves the right to require any applicant to enter into a non-disclosure agreement.

5.5. Zero Tolerance for Fraud

IFES has zero tolerance for fraud. Fraud is any act or omission that intentionally misleads, or attempts to mislead, to obtain a benefit or to avoid an obligation. If you have concerns about potential fraud in any way related to IFES projects, contracts, or activities, please contact IFES' Compliance Hotline at compliance@ifes.org or at +1 202-350-6791.

5.5. Intellectual Property

Applicants should not use any intellectual property of IFES including, but not limited to, all logos, registered trademarks, or trade names of IFES, at any time, without the prior written approval of IFES, as appropriate.

5.5. Applications

All accepted applications shall become the property of IFES and will not be returned.

5.5. Governing Law

This RFA and the applicants' applications shall be governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Virginia, USA.

5.5. Partial Awarding

IFES reserves the right to accept all or part of the application when awarding the grant. IFES also reserves the right to issue multiple awards and procure only items or services from selected applicants.

5.5. No Liability

Issuance of this RFA does not constitute a commitment on the part of IFES to make an award nor does it commit IFES to pay for costs incurred in the preparation and submission of any application in response to this RFA. Further, IFES reserves the right to reject any or all applications received or stop solicitation process at any time, without assigning any reason or liability.

IFES shall not be liable to any applicant, person, or entity for any losses, expenses, costs, claims, or damages of any kind:

- Arising out of, by reason of, or attributable to, the applicant responding to this RFA; or
- As a result of the use of any information, error, or omission contained in this RFA document or provided during the RFA process.

5.5. Entire RFA

This RFA, any addenda to it, and any attached schedules, constitute the entire RFA.
