In the lead up to the 2020 elections in Myanmar, IFES is supporting the Union Election Commission (UEC) to develop and implement a nationwide voter education program across a wide selection of mass media platforms. An important element of this program will be the production of several short films to be used on voter and civic education materials.

 - Urban voters
 - Rural voters
 - Disabled voters
 - Ethnic voters
 - Youth
 - Voting for Migrant Workers

These videos will use actors for each production. The creative content and style should be discussed with IFES and UEC before production. Each respondent should be still photographed in the same location as their interview so that their image can be used in posters, billboards and newspaper advertisements.

The films will be developed in a variety ethnic minority languages in Myanmar, such as Shan, Kachin, Chin, Mon and Karen.

2. Several films will be developed for the UEC for posting on YouTube and other social media platforms. These films will be designed and planned with the UEC in NPT and use the UEC staff as actors/actresses in the films. These films will be between 1-5 minutes and will feature a variety of educational topics including information on the voter list display, disability inclusion and key electoral updates, including:
 - Number of UEC videos on:
 - Why to vote
 - UEC role in elections
 - Countering disinformation and hate speech
