4 SCOPE OF WORK/GOODS/SERVICES

IFES is seeking a creative production company with significant production experience relevant to producing a live music television and talk show format on Myanmar television. IFES is planning a one-time television concert and talk show format to promote electoral participation among first time voters (age around 18 to 22) in Myanmar. The event, with the working title “Tune Up to Vote 2020!” is expected to be broadcast on a prime-time spot at a major television network in Myanmar. The television format will consist of two main components, live music and talk show.

“Tune Up to Vote 2020!” is expected to feature a range of local high-profile music acts who will each perform a short set of songs, and also participate in talk-show style discussions and other interactive features during the change-over time between artists. The concert location would either be a television studio or a concert venue in Yangon. The “Tune Up to Vote 2020!” television show is embedded in an extensive publicity campaign with maximum reach and messages that gain interest of first-time voters.

“Tune Up to Vote!” is a 90 minutes music and talk show edutainment format which explains why voting is important, what impact a vote can have, why celebrities and music stars also vote in Myanmar, using narratives, live music performances and viewers call-ins and gamification segments.

The Contractor shall produce the “Tune Up to Vote 2020!” television show start to finish, from creating the show concept, budgeting, finding a television network partner to broadcast the show, artist curation...
(talent buying), on stage / studio production and other logistical and creative services. The public relations campaign will also be conceptualized and managed by the contractor.

The production company shall contract all performers, presenters, contributors, talk show guests or other persons involved in the production of the television show and make all relevant agreements with the television network. Both the lineup and the overall concept will be developed in consultation with IFES.

IFES will accept offers from a television network, an individual company or a group of companies which could already include a television network. Individual companies must submit a letter of intent from a television network.

8 ADDITIONAL TERMS & CONDITIONS

Non-Disclosure Agreement
IFES reserves the right to require the prospective vendor to enter into a non-disclosure agreement.

No Collusion
Collusion is strictly prohibited. Collusion is defined as an agreement or compact, written or oral, between two or more parties with the goal of limiting fair and open competition by deceiving, misleading, or defrauding a third party.

Companies Owned or Controlled by Government
The prospective vendor must disclose in writing with its Response if a government, its agents, or agencies, have an ownership or managerial interest in the company. Failure to disclose a government ownership of managerial interest in the company will result in the prospective contractor’s offer being removed from consideration.

Subcontracting
No subcontracting is allowed under this solicitation.

Costs
The solicitation does not obligate IFES to pay for any costs, of any kind whatsoever, which may be incurred by a prospective contractor/vendor or third parties, in connection with the Response.

Intellectual Property
Prospective vendors may not use any intellectual property of IFES including, but not limited to, all logos, trademarks, or trade names of IFES, at any time without the prior written approval of IFES.

Prospective Contractors’ Responses
All accepted Responses shall become the property of IFES and will not be returned.

Partial Awarding
IFES reserves the right to accept all or part of the Response when awarding a contract.

No Liability
IFES reserve the right to accept or reject any Response or to stop the procurement process at any time, without assigning any reason or liability. IFES shall not be liable to any prospective contractor, person, or entity for any losses, expenses, costs, claims, or damages of any kind.

Entire Solicitation
This solicitation, any addenda to it, and any attached schedules, constitute the entire solicitation.
